BUSINESS MEN GO ON RECORD AGAINST DIVISION OF COUNTY

List of Those Protesting That Charter Scheme Would Raise Tax Rate Grows by Bounds CHALLENGE STILL DODGED

AS anticipated, the Oakland Charter League is endeavoring to make an eleventh-hour attack on the statement of the Alameda County Anti-Division League that, through county division, with county expenses added to those of city and the cutting off of $100,000,000 of taxable property, the tax rate will be increased to $5.43 instead of $4.91, as now. The Charter League, itself, has presented no detailed figures, and for twenty-one days has ignored and side-stepped this challenge.

That the expert accountants of the Charter League go over the figures with the expert accountants of the Alameda County Anti-Division League, William Dolge & Co., and, if there is a conflict of opinion, the two select a third certified public accountant and that the agreement reached by the three experts be presented to the voters of Oakland in order that they may know what county division and the new charter scheme will cost the taxpayers.

If the Charter League disputes figures, why does it not accept the challenge?

L. W. Wolcott, general manager of the Sherwin-Williams Company, Arthur H. Breen, of Breen & Breen, George Clark, Emil Nussbaum, and a long list of others, among those men who are prominent in Oakland's business life and affairs who placed themselves on record today in opposition to county division, showing the growing change in sentiment in business circles.

The adding of county expense to city expense, the building of a wall around Oakland beyond which it could not expand, division, creation of antipathies and the killing of all hope for a future expansion are some of the reasons given by these men for their opposition. Many point out flaws in the charter, deplore its attempt to wreck city service and its open invitation for a turning over of the government to a political ring and under the old ward system.

DUPLICATION MEANS BIG EXPENSE JUMP.

Wolcott's statement of position follows: "As a business man of Oakland and a resident of the Eastbay district, I am opposed to the division of Alameda county for the following reasons:

"The tax rate of Oakland and the Eastbay cities would inevitably go up as such offices as sheriff, county clerk, county district attorney, coronator and such establishments as the poor farms, hospitals, detention homes, etc., must be duplicated in each of the new counties established.

TAXES WOULD BE INCREASED ACCORDINGLY.

"Certified public accountants assert that whereas the combined state and county city tax rate of Oakland is now $4.91 on the $100 valuation, under the proposed plan it would be $5.43 on the same valuation at the minimum estimate. The other Eastbay cities would find their taxes increased proportionately. Oakland and the other new counties created would be under large expense in copying all the records now maintained in the county recorder's office. This alone would cost each of the counties in the neighborhood of a million dollars. The erection of new county hospitals, detention homes, etc., would increase the services of the county government tremendously.

The people of Oakland would lose their right to elect the city officials. The only positions filled by popular election would be city assessor and seven councilmen. These seven councilmen would have the power to appoint or remove at their pleasure the mayor, city manager or any of the lesser city officials. Thus, by dominating four of the seven wards created, the entire city could be easily controlled by unscrupulous politicians. This would mean the ruination of our existing civil service system.

EACH DIVISION WOULD BE SIMILARLY BURDENED.

"The county officials that could be eliminated by consolidating the city and county governments of Oakland make up only 20 per cent of the county budget, whereas, Oakland would lose 40 per cent of her assessed valuation. Each of the other divisions would be similarly burdened.

"Oakland would be cut off from expansion as she already fills all the territory prescribed under the new charter. Any attempt to consolidate Oakland and San Francisco would be greatly hindered.

"With these considerations in view any loyal citizen of Oakland, with the civic welfare of his community at heart, must vote 'no.'"

Breen's statement follows: "County division will accomplish any number of undesirable things. I could speak volumes on the subject. I am convinced that it will not lower taxes or affect any sort of saving, just as I am convinced that the figures advanced in its favor are fallacious. It will be a great mistake for the people of Oakland to split off from the balance of the county. I am in favor of consolidation in the real sense of the word and hope to see this achieved soon."

The opinions of others follow: R. L. Smith, real estate broker—I am opposed to county division. If we separate it will prevent future consolidation. It is absurd to split the magnificent county of Alameda and it would not reduce taxes. I shall vote "No."

Charles E. Naylor, Oakland real estate broker, can see nothing, but loss to all in county division. If we

THREE MINUTE TALES

A WATCHFUL WAITER by AD SCHUSTER

"BALDY, old bird, unless you wake up and show some of the stuff in your unwritten guarantee there won't be a man-jack on this ship who will have money or ambition for shore leave for months to come."

Joe Warring, first-class sailor on the Wyamie, at a discreet distance pointed a finger at a sleepy eagle, the warship's mascot, and thought sorrowfully of the accumulated troubles which may beset a sporting man.

"If you don't stand up and fight for your ship and your country," he continued, "me, the fellow who feeds you most often, will be the inner-bad of all the in-bads. It's up to you, old bird, to forget the watchful waiting and wait right in just like—" and the sailor, on a warship in a Mexican port in the days of relations slightly strained, did not finish the sentence.

Baldy had been signed up to go to shore that night to test his powers of fighting against a Mexican game cock. The affair had started with an argument between Joe and a storekeeper and from a rash boast had assumed an almost international importance. There was not a sailor on the Wyamie who had not wagered every cent he had and all he could draw in advance or raise on his portable belongings. In the town tonight else was talked of. The best cock that could be found, a champion of the world, was spurred and ready for the go.

On the face of it, an eagle ought to be able to whip any rooster alive—that is the way the boys on the Wyamie felt, and to that they clung. They clung despite the fact that they had seen Baldy, the mascot, where the native champion, Ashore, where the very bootblacks could recite the pedigrees of every game bird of note and where the cock fight was a tradition, reliance was placed on the agility and courage of the lighter fowl.

CROWDED around the pit the sailors from the Wyamie and the Mexicans from town watched the preliminary cock fights and waited for the main event. Slim roosters, spurred and wicked, darted at one another like leaping swords. To Joe Warring, seemed incredible that any bird could be so watchful and so swift. He pictured Baldy, bewildered at an assault which came from all sides and baffled at an antagonist who could speak volumes on the subject. In the wink of an eye, then a Mexican next to Joe spoke in careful English intended to be heard:

"The cock," he said, "is a proud soldier. He is a fighting man. When he is insulted, he strikes and very quick. He is the expert, the brave, and he is the Mexican." With a gesture toward Baldy, in different to noise and fighting birds, the man continued: "Over the top of the slope, he watches and he waits—he does not fight."

Joe saw that a number of eyes were on him intent for the effect of the words.

I guess Old Baldy will take care of himself," he answered with a confidence that was not shared by the successful attempt at indifference. "A fellow doesn't have to parade around to be a fighter."

PREPARATIONS for the battle saved the situation. The champion, Baldy, was placed in the pit where the eagle blinked its eyes at a puzzled game cock who, with head held critically, stepped a wide circle of light. The steel-springed fight owl was ready enough to examine carefully this new kind of antagonist, a dumpy bird that slouched and winked, and watched.

Then came the fight. The rooster sprang and Baldy lifted a claw. There was a gasp from the crowd—pain, and exultation—as the eagle, with a motion as simple as that of plucking a flower, pulled the champion by the neck, pulled off its head, and resumed a stolid pose.

Back on the Wyamie Joe Warring, still at a discreet distance, poked his finger at a well fed mate. "Baldy," he said, "you make me as rich beyond the dream of Old Man Avarcia. You have saved my imperiled reputation, and you have confirmed my impression that Mexicans are good sports. You are a darned slow bird, but you are effective."

10 ARBUCKLE ALL WORK ON JURORS VOTE NAVY HALTED BY HARDING

Second Trial of Comedian On Manslaughter Ends As Did First in Failure to Reach a Verdict; Jury Is Dismissed

Prosecution Announces Third Attempt to Convict Movie Actor Is Probable; Deliberations Required 44 Hours

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle will have to stand trial a third time for manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress. Foreman J. J. McElroy announced this decision late this afternoon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The jury failed to agree and was discharged today in the second trial of a manslaughter charge against Roscoe C. ("Fatty") Arbuckle in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress. Foreman J. J. McElroy announced that the vote stood two to ten. He did not designate whether the majority was for conviction or acquittal.

"There is no chance for us to agree," McElroy said. A poll of the jury was taken to determine if they could agree on further deliberation. All emphatically said "no."

Announcement that the jury stood ten for conviction and two for acquittal was made by Leo Friedman, assistant district attorney, and leading prosecution counsel. Harry McGovern, bailiff, made the same announcement.

"We expect to try the case again," Friedman said. Later Nate Friedman, one of the jurors, announced that the two voting for acquittal were Leo Dolson and Clem R. Brownberger.

"The first ten ballots were 9 to 2 for conviction. Then it switched to 10 to 2 for acquittal. It was the fourteenth ballot which was the last one taken," Friedman said.

The case was put over until Monday to be set for trial. The courtroom was crowded for the result of the jury's deliberations. The jurors all seemed haggard and worn. Gavin McNab, chief defense counsel, said he would make a statement later.

Arbuckle did not change expression when the foreman announced disagreement. It was an old story to him now, his attitude seemed to indicate.

ARBUCKLE REFUSES TO MAKE STATEMENT. Minto Durfee clung to his side and the moment court was adjourned he made at once for the door. To the barrack of reporters Arbuckle shouted: "No statement now, and they made their way out."

Arbuckle has been a defendant three times, once in a police court hearing on a minor charge, once by Miss Rappe's companion, Mrs. Kambina Maude Delmont, which was reduced to manslaughter, and twice in the superior court on manslaughter trials.

A drinking party in his suite at the Hotel St. Francis September 5, 1921, was the affair that led up to Miss Rappe's death four days later. Several other motion picture actresses and a number of women attended the party. After an absence with Arbuckle from the room where the festivities were in progress, Miss Rappe was found in a room, tearing her clothes and shrieking. Arbuckle's story, told in person in the first trial and read into the record in the second, was that he found her ill in the adjoining room and attempted to attend to her, while the prosecution sought to show her illness was caused by Arbuckle himself.

Louis Hill Opposed By Seven of Heirs

ST. PAUL, Feb. 3.—Leadership in the management of the James J. Hill properties was expected of Louis W. Hill, second son, by his brothers and sisters. It was asserted by Mrs. Gertrude Hill, in the probate court testimony in the contest over appointment of an executor of their mother's estate.

Mrs. Gavin was not in court, but her testimony was given in a deposition taken recently in New York. The controversy is over the application of L. W. Hill for appointment as executor of his mother's $12,000,000 estate, which seven of the nine heirs oppose. The Northwestern Trust Company, a Hill-owned institution, he made executor.

Final Plenary Session Will Be Held Tomorrow; Pact to Be Signed, Conference to Be Adjourned Monday

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Plans were made today for the appearance of President Harding at a plenary session of the arms conference Monday to witness the signing of the treaties, to thank the delegates for their work and to participate in the adjournment exercises.

By UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The association of nations' idea, broached by the White House, is dead as far as the armament conference is concerned. It became known today.

By CARL D. GROAT, United Press Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Harding has directed the navy department to stop all construction of ships which would be scrapped under the naval treaty. It was learned at the White House today.

No actual scrapping will take place until all countries have ratified the naval treaty. It was stated, that President Harding in ordering construction halted, suggested to Secretary of the Navy Denby that great economy would result from stopping all construction on doomed ships at once.

The saving to the country as the result of the order will be more than $5,000,000 a month.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—A plenary session of the arms conference was called today by Secretary of State Hughes to meet tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock.

At this "clean-up" session the treaties giving China a new status by freeing her from foreign domination will be presented for the approval of the world.

A complete statement of the conference's vital and far-reaching achievements probably will be made by Secretary Hughes.

The meeting tomorrow will be the sixth plenary session of the conference. It comes exactly twelve weeks after the first meeting of the conference on November 12, when Hughes started the world with his comprehensive program for limitation of naval armament.

Already a move is under way in Congress to pass speedily a resolution partly carrying out the naval limitation treaty by stopping all construction work on American battleships. This would save the American taxpayers more than $5,000,000 monthly.

Efforts may be made to pass a resolution ordering the halt, before the Senate finally ratifies all the arms conference treaties.

JAPAN VOLUNTARILY ABANDONS "DEMANDS"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Japan met China partly on the latter's request for abandonment of the celebrated "twenty-one demands" program of 1915.

Taking the center of the stage as the final scene of the arms conference began, the Japanese announced their government was ready to give up group five of the "demands," which China has held as calculated to rob her of her sovereignty, and to make further concessions regarding economic privileges and political and military preferences in Manchuria and Mongolia.

Japan's statement was presented by Baron Hirokuma, who announced three concessions, one relating to group five and the others to the situation in Manchuria and Mongolia. Japan was ready, he said, to withdraw from the "demands" of the Chinese-Japanese treaty of 1915, under which she retained the right to press further in the future the unaccepted group five. One of the other concessions related to the situation in Manchuria and eastern inner Mongolia to the international consortium and the other asserts Japan has no intention of insisting that Japanese advisers be employed in these countries in political, financial, military or police matters.

The famous group five, thus cast into the discard after it had been the center of the "demands" controversy for six years, would have required China to employ Japanese political, financial and military advisers in her central government.

Japan's right to jointly police with China certain important Chinese areas, establish in China a joint Chinese-Japanese arsenal and grant to Japanese mining and railroad concessions. These requirements, the Chinese charge, would mean the end of Chinese sovereignty.

CHICAGO HEIRESS AND FIANCE DROP OUT OF SIGHT

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Mrs. Marion B. Stephens, 45, Chicago heiress, and Anastasia Andrievitch Vonsiatosky-Vonsiaty, 23, Russian, employed by the Baldwin Locomotive Works, both of whom announced purpose of being married tomorrow, this morning had dropped mysteriously from sight.

Mrs. Stephens, who yesterday denied herself to reporters, suddenly changed hotel about midnight.

The pair were seen this morning at the Russian orthodox church. They drove away in an automobile.

It was reported at the church that Mrs. Stephens and her fiancé merely had gone there to sign the required marriage documents. The young Russian, who is about a head taller than Mrs. Stephens, was smartly dressed in a blue suit, a light green overcoat and a gray fedora hat. Mrs. Stephens was clad in a brown velvet costume trimmed with fur.

They were seen by Fleishacker, it was announced.

HISTORIES USED IN SCHOOLS HELD HALF-AMERICAN

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Expressing conviction that school children are not learning the truth about United States history, Alvin Owsley of Indianapolis, national director of the American Legion, appeared as the witness today at the investigation conducted by Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfeld into histories studied in public schools.

"The country is at the cross roads between half-Americanism and un-Americanism and the time has come to mould the true spirit of Americanism," said Owsley. "The place to begin is with the children."

Charles Grant Miller of Staten Island named six school histories which he termed pro-British. Some of them, he said, "belittled heroic characters, inspiring incidents and vital principles."

MRS. CROSS ENDS SUIT FOR DIVORCE. AFFIDAVIT FILED

Action Follows Charges Made by Husband Involving Visits to Cafes.

Cross charges her husband told her that he "picked her out of the gutter." On another occasion, she said, he boxed her ears while they were entertaining at dinner.

The complaint set forth that these occurrences took place at the Hotel Oakland, where they formerly resided, and later at their home, 432 Pacific avenue, Piedmont, where Cross told her, she alleges, that she was "not fit to associate with decent people." Other epithets she said were "no good," and "no brains."

They separated on December 14, 1921.

When it first became known today that Mrs. Cross had filed a request for a dismissal of the suit, friends believed that the couple had effected a reconciliation. Cross, however, in a statement issued shortly afterward emphatically denied this. "I had nothing to do with the filing of the dismissal," he said.

Cross had filed an affidavit in superior court charging that his wife went to restaurants in San Francisco with other men on gay parties and that on at least one occasion she did not return to her apartments in the Clift hotel until late the next day. One specific occasion, according to the affidavit, occurred on January 22, when Mrs. Cross was seen in a party at the Techau Tavern, San Francisco. She did not return to her apartment, the affidavit sets forth, until two days later.

HUSBAND'S INCOME PUT AT $10,000 MONTHLY.

On January 31, this year, Cross filed an order for Mrs. Cross to show cause why she should not appear in court. She was subpoenaed and was to appear before a notary public to have a deposition taken. Her first appearance was scheduled for January 6. She pleaded illness and was given until January 13. She did not appear then or on the 18th or the 25th, two other postponed dates. According to Cross' affidavit it was during this time, when Mrs. Cross was supposed to be ill, that her visits to San Francisco restaurants occurred.

In her complaint, Mrs. Cross said that her husband had an income of more than $10,000 a month and a capital of more than half a million dollars. She left the alimony to the discretion of the court.

Efforts to locate Mrs. Cross in the Eastbay today were unsuccessful. Her attorney was out of his office and could not be reached.

WOMAN IS ON FOURTH DAY OF HUNGER STRIKE

FREMONT, Neb., Feb. 3.—Attempts to break the hunger strike of Mrs. Loretta Schreiner, local woman, who was sentenced to the Dodge county jail for ten days for refusal to send her two small children to school, again met with failure today.

Mrs. Schreiner has not tasted food since Tuesday morning when she was first brought into court. She spends her entire time in prayer with her Bible before her on the narrow cot in her cell.

The woman has thus far shown no ill effects of her fast. She tells the matron that there is nothing unusual about her conduct, and both she and her children have often gone without food or drink for a week at a time.

Seawall to Save Town Is Planned

WOODLAND, Feb. 3.—United States surveyors are working in Knights Landing district today determining whether or not it is necessary to build a sea wall in the Sacramento river to save the town of Knights Landing from encroachment by the waters of the stream which is said to be washing the main thoroughfare away. Little by little each high water. The Knights Landing Chamber of Commerce, of which Frank Mandeville is president, has urged immediate action on the part of the government to save the river trading center.

MAN FINED, GETS PROBATION ON BATTERY CHARGE

Charles Behrendtz, a whaler, was fined $35 and placed on nine months' probation today by Police Judge Mortimer Smith after being found guilty of battery and disturbing the peace.

He was arrested last night on the complaint of Mrs. Edna Cummings, manager of the California Women's Emergency House at 710 Eighth street.

Behrendtz told the court that he went there to see his wife and two children. He was told by the matron that everybody had retired for the night. Mrs. Cummings told the judge that when she attempted to stop him he struck her.

The defendant told the court that he wanted to get into the house to give his wife some money for her support.

"How much money have you?" asked Judge Smith.

"Thirty-five dollars and eighty cents," replied the prisoner.

"You may keep the eighty cents," said the judge.

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 3.—Governor Pat M. Neff today issued a proclamation extending the martial law zone of Mexico to include all of Freestone county. Martial law was proclaimed for Mexico in order to cope with the state of lawlessness which followed the rapid growth of new oil fields. The zone was extended, it was stated, because scores of gamblers and bootleggers driven from the city had resumed operations just outside the zone, defying efforts of the police to put them out of business.

Sue drew a sharp breath. She felt her cheeks burning. This was the last straw. Mrs. Hingham, from the home town, had seen her in her seedy old blue suit, and would tell all the home folks how shabby she looked. "I won't let her tell them that," Sue thought, angrily. "I will go right over to Cherry's, 615 13th street, this noon and get me some clothes, and then invite that woman to a theater to-night. I'll look prosperous enough then. London to Shed Drab Nights for New York Variety LONDON, Feb. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—The "Brighter London Society," which has just been formed, has undertaken "what an American termed it a 'pretty tall order.' It is nothing less than to make London, to quote a phrase used by one of its founders, the "magnet of the world," and thereby attract to it multitudes of people with plenty of money to spend, and especially rich Americans.

The society is the outgrowth of a recent discussion among a number of prominent business men at the Savoy Hotel. They fell to contrasting London with New York—Oxford street with the Great White Way. As compared with New York, even New York under prohibition—London's aspect was decidedly "drab," and its night life dull. It was generally agreed. Everybody was of the opinion that London needed brightening.

"The promoters of the new society," writes one of them, "hope to help make London the most worthy and beautiful city in the world; dispel its drabness, abolish its smoke and its fog; brighten its approaches and lengthen the Thames embankment; assist in every way the overcoming of unnecessary restrictions, help the hotels, restaurants and shops of the metropolis and thus attract the merchants and tourists of the world."

Among the vice-presidents of the society are the Bishop of Birmingham, H. Gordon Selfridge, General Sir Alfred Codrington, Viscount Curzon, Sir Woodman Barbridge and Sir Henry Britain.

and time within five weeks, will not be withdrawn unless order is restored completely. It was indicated.

Every window in the confectionery of Mrs. Mayne Murphy was shattered by bullets fired last night. The occupants of the house fled to safety. SHOTS ARE FIRED BY BOTH FACTIONS.

Mrs. Frank Bahlman, who owns a grocery, took her two daughters and son and hid in the cellar after several shots had swept through the store and one bullet had grazed her head. Many other families sought refuge in their cellars or took refuge in other parts of the city.

"I stayed in the strike zone until 2:40 a. m.," Safety Director Thompson said. "I wanted to see just where the shooting was coming from. My observation is that it was done by both sides. At intervals shots would be sent into the mills, and immediately thereafter a fusillade would be returned by the mill guards."

NEWPORT, Ky., Feb. 3.—Quiet prevailed in Newport early today except for intermittent shooting in the vicinity of the Newport Rolling Mill, where a strike is in progress, and where a tank company of sixty officers and men, with seven tanks, are on guard, assisting deputy sheriffs and Newport police to maintain order.

Early today a flurry was caused when sniping from outside the mill was followed by firing from machine and riot guns inside the plant. More than 100 shots were fired, but no casualties were reported.

Earlier, Safety Commissioner Thompson was taken to police headquarters in a patrol wagon after he had attempted to disperse an assembly of strike sympathizers and had been menaced.

Sheriff T. B. Tisman then went to the scene to talk with the disturbers and was grazed by a bullet fired by a sniper.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 3.—Alleged strike breakers are leaving Nebraska City, where state troops were recently sent to preserve order in the recent packing house strike, according to a telephone report received here today. About sixty of these men left yesterday, materially relieving the tension of the Nebraska City situation.

Irish Free State Seeks Half of Ulster, Says Craig

LONDON, Feb. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, declared in a statement today that he had been told by Michael Collins, head of the Southern Ireland provisional government, at their conference in Dublin yesterday that Collins had received a promise of bringing into the Irish Free State almost half of North Ireland, including Fermanagh, Tyrone, large parts of Armagh and Down, and Londonderry city, Baniskillen and Newry.

Sir James said he had suggested to Collins a week's adjournment for consideration of the situation regarding the boundaries between Ulster and South Ireland, but that Collins had replied the differences separating them were so wide that postponement would be useless.

Craig conferred with Colonial Secretary Churchill before making the statement.

PREMIER TELLS OF GRAVE SITUATION.

Sir James emphasized the gravity which he attached to the hitch in the negotiations with the provisional government.

"I went to Dublin yesterday," he said, "to discuss with Michael Collins certain questions, hoping to promote peace in Ireland. It was only when I started from Belfast, however, and read the morning papers that I suspected any change of attitude on the part of Collins."

"I noticed that he received deputations of Sinn Feiners from different parts of Ulster the previous day demanding that their areas should be and that Prime Minister Lloyd George had stated in the House of Commons that the boundary commission proviso meant a mere readjustment of the boundary.

HUGO STINNES, GERMAN CROESUS, INVADES WALL ST.

Berlin Capitalist, Whose Interests Cover Globe, Seeks Order From Railways.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3. (By the Associated Press).—The name of Hugo Stinnes—one to conjure with in Germany—has smashed its way into Wall Street.

Big business, particularly the steel industry, is interested, and is asking if Stinnes has designs upon the commercial and industrial activities of this country.

Various reports have come to the United States concerning plans of the German Croesus to extend his interest to this country, where he has heretofore been little known. But the first concrete evidences of his plans came yesterday with the announcement that he was negotiating with several American railroads for the sale of 15,000 tons of German rails at a price, including freight, about $2.25 a ton less than the current American price of $4.00. A mere 15,000 tons is a relatively small offering, worth less than a half million dollars at Stinnes' price. But, it was pointed out, it is a very fair sized initial offering.

Whether Stinnes will follow up his invasion of American markets by efforts to acquire control of American industries is a question that time alone can solve. The United States is one of the few countries in the development of which he has apparently taken an hand. There have been reports that Stinnes was contemplating a visit to the United States to meet American capitalists, but no date was set for the visit.

STINNES EIGHT BILLION MARKS. Credited with controlling eight billion marks of capital and with being the most powerful figure, industrially and politically, in Germany.

NEW METHODS OF BUSINESS NEEDED DECLARES EXPERT

Chicago Man in Address to the Rotarians Reviews U. S.
Trade Since 1812.

Every man must stand or fall as he renders service to humanity. This was the keynote of an address delivered to the members of the Oakland Rotary Club at the regular luncheon in the Hotel Oakland yesterday by Captain John W. Gorbey, director of research of the Cyclone Fence Company of Chicago.

Captain Gorbey took as his subject "Economics as Applied to Every-day Business," and showed the business men by means of a chart the fluctuations of business from 1812 to 1920. The chart indicated the depression of twenty years which followed the two big wars, the Napoleonic wars and the civil war.

"Business men all over the world are looking to their methods today," said Captain Gorbey. "They know as you do that the Napoleonic wars elevated prices to 150 per cent above normal; the civil war to 140 per cent and the world war to 130 per cent. They also know that the depression which followed the other wars is inevitable today."

PROSPERITY TO REIGN.

"For the next twenty years the business man must operate on a declining market. It is new for us who have learned our business on a rising market, but we will never have the rising market in our day again. Not that our lives will be unprosperous. On the contrary, history shows that prosperity reigned despite the decline of prices."

"The answer to the business of

ESTATES CLOSED BY NEW RULING

Superior Judge E. C. Robinson, by what he termed a "common sense" decision, has cut the Gordian knot that has tied up scores of estates in Alameda county, leaving them still "unclosed," when he issued an order accepting the receipt of County Treasurer Fred W. Foss as representative of the state treasurer.

Under a standing order of the probate court, in estates where there are no heirs, the administrators of those estates have paid over the funds of the estates to the state treasurer through the county treasurer. The county treasurer, twice a year, turns over to the state treasurer all moneys due the state and takes a "blanket receipt." The state treasurer's office has refused to issue individual receipts to the various estates, and the probate court has refused to accept any other than state treasurer's receipts as showing to whom the money was finally paid. So long as administrators could not produce those receipts the estates remained legally unclosed.

Judge Robinson, in making the ruling, said: "I do not think it is necessary to keep an estate open for lack of a state treasurer's receipt where the money has been duly paid over to the county treasurer and by the county treasurer to the state treasurer. Hereafter it will be sufficient in this court for attorneys to produce the receipt of the county treasurer, specifying the money is to be paid to the state treasurer, and I will discharge the estate on that receipt."

NO NON-RESIDENT FEES AT U. OF C. AFTER ONE YEAR

Status of Students From Outside of State Put Up to Supreme Court.

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—Non-resident students who have been in attendance at the university for one year or more will not have to pay the non-resident fee of $150 per year, according to a ruling of the board of regents made public today.

However, the question of the right of the university to levy a charge against a student from another state who declares that California will be his permanent place of residence will be argued before the State Supreme Court Monday. This action has come about through the agitation of so-called non-resident students, who have formed an Equal Privilege association.

Attorney J. J. Goldberg of San Francisco, representing the Equal Privilege association, has filed a writ of mandate in the Supreme Court in behalf of Brucene Bryan '23, who came to the state eleven months prior to her enrollment in the university, and who was placed in the non-resident class. J. J. Manron, university attorney, will return the writ on Monday in the Supreme Court.

The Equal Privilege association bases their action on the principle that the ruling that all students

BIRD, CAUSE OF REPLEVIN SUIT, SINGS IN COURT

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 3.—"Mickey" is a "ward" of the local Municipal Court.

Mickey is a little canary bird and is the cause of a replevin suit. Pending determination of the suit Mickey, in a new cage, sings away in the courtroom, voicing its appreciation when Municipal Judge Seidel gives it a dime's worth of bird seed.

Mickey five months ago flew away from the home of its owner, Mary Chilcote, entering the home of Mrs. Jake Zoboto, the bird was detained by Mrs. Zoboto for a reward, it is claimed.

The replevin suit was instituted after Mrs. Zoboto, replying to the bird's owner's request for its return demanded $5 for "boarding" the canary five months.

Piedmont Boulevard Extension Protested

PIEDMONT, Feb. 3.—Dr. C. P. This extension would necessitate the condemning of one block from Ashmont avenue to La Salle avenue.

Commissioner of Streets W. J. Baccus of Oakland suggested the opening of Crescent boulevard to take some of the traffic off Mandana boulevard, which is said to be steep and slippery. The Council took the matter under advisement.

Why Are Some Women Popular?

happy beloved and successful, while others drag out a negative existence, of no use to themselves or anyone else? Except in a few cases the answer is to be found in a state of freedom from the troubles known as "female." The well woman radiates cheerfulness and serenity, while the ailing one repels because of her lack of these qualities. It is not necessary, however, to harbor aches and pains, and the "blues" that make one a detriment to society. The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought relief to such women, and given them a new lease of life. Advertisements.

If you see it in The TRIBUNE tell them so.

DEALERS CHARGE SCHOOL BOYCOTT

Alleging that the children of Clarkson school have been forbidden to trade at stores within three blocks of the school, merchants of the vicinity last night sent a protest to the Board of Education against the alleged "boycott." The merchants alleged that the school officials have advised the children to patronize the school cafeteria, and the merchants alleged discrimination. The matter was referred to Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter for investigation.

A communication was also received from the district attorney, suggesting that only one agent of the Board of Education have power to make the formal requests for legal advice. The district attorney says he sometimes receives such "four queries on the same subject." The secretary was empowered to make all the official requests.

A proposed lease to the Stewart Motion Picture company for the Mary Smith property was brought before the board, but put over until Monday. The Stewart company is on land bought for the McCleskey Junior High School. The lease would give them possession until the school is built.

The second lowest bidder on the plumbing for the future Lockwood Junior High School entered a formal protest to the board, alleging that recent bids were supposed to be closed at 3 p. m., but allowed to come in till 5, when all were opened. The complainant says that the low bidder's bid came after 3 p. m. The school board held that under the law it could take the bids till they were opened.

Season of Opera Will Open Sunday

The San Carlo Grand Opera company will open a week's engagement at the Century theater next Sunday and the variety of the program and the artists who are scheduled to appear has aroused a great deal of interest among Eastbay district music lovers.

The company, according to Fortune Gallo, its general manager, has added to its personnel, including several artists who will make their first appearance in Oakland. These additions include Josephine, Lucchese, Bianca Saroya and Anna Fizzu.

The repertoire for the week follows: Sunday, "Rigoletto." Monday, "Madam Butterfly." Tuesday, "Aida." Wednesday matinee, "Martha." Wednesday evening, "Tosca." Thursday, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci." Friday, "Carmen." Saturday matinee, "Madam Butterfly." Saturday evening, "Il Trovatore."

ESTUARY LOT IS WANTED FOR GARBAGE DUMP

WANTED—A nice, large lot in far East Oakland, near the estuary, to be used as a garbage dump. Must be capable of absorbing any sort of garbage and must be situated where the smells will strike no residences.

The street department, bereft of its Seventy-seventh avenue dump, today started a still hunt for an available piece of property, lest garbage wagons be compelled to cross the city to West Oakland with their malodorous loads. Up to noon today no new site had been found available.

The Seventy-seventh avenue dump was sold to other day by its owners and the arrangement whereby the city could dump garbage upon it was terminated. Since that time Superintendent of Streets George Mattis has been hunting for sites.

Mattis, in odd moments, has been making a traverse of the municipal golf links near Chabot lake, to see where will be the best site for the future road which will give access to the place. As the ground is muddy, much of his exploring is done in rubber boots.

Stanford Raises $60,000 of Quota

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 3.—University students have to date expressed their love and loyalty to Stanford by subscribing more than thirty per cent of the campus quota of $200,000. Today the totals had reached in excess of $60,000.

One of the first cash contributions received from sources outside of students and alumni was that of a check for $1000 from Mrs. J. W. Mitchell of Palo Alto.

The student shoe shining parlor on the law steps of the campus continues to be one of the popular sources of revenue for the million dollar endowment fund. The first crew of shiners, consisting of Dan Evans, president of the student body, Harry Borba, editor of the Daily Palo Alto; Philip Neer, captain of the tennis club, and C. J. Trauer, president of Skull and Bones, showed up early and did a land office business. Stanford's future.

FISH GUSH FROM 1200-FOOT OIL WELL IN KERN

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 3 (By the Associated Press).—A wildcat oil well on the Hitchcock ranch, south of Porterville, at 1200 feet, has begun to produce—not oil but fish—according to word received here. They were tiny specimens, apparently from a subterranean stream.

dent shines have cost as high as $10 a shoe, and even at that the campus is said to be one of the best "shined" of any university.

The women students in the chemistry building have undertaken the dispensing of luncheons to hungry students, the returns for which are to swell the funds being raised for Stanford's future.

Seniors Travel Afar For Stage Settings

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—From the Far East to the frozen north seniors at the university traveled to obtain settings for the extravaganza plots presented to the student committee today for the selection of the annual graduating class musical comedy.

Two operas are being considered for the Greek theater production, which will take place during senior week. One of the plays, named "The Sword of Persia," was written by R. L. Ingram, editor of the Pelican and author of the junior class of his class. The other was presented by William Oliners, member of the Occident staff.

Upon final selection, tryouts will be held for speaking parts and choruses, the major part of the graduating class participating in the annual show.

Oakland Players To Present Comedy

Alvin McElhatton, Oakland actor and playwright, and his company of players will produce "The Awakening," a comedy drama, at Ebbell hall, Friday night, February 17. The play will be given under the auspices of Manchester Lodge No. 585, L. O. O. F. It has been produced three times with success at the Home club and was selected last year as a benefit play to be staged at Ebbell hall, where it was also acclaimed a success.

The cast of characters will include Lois Muffley, Una Harris, Ben Arlett, Joseph McCarthy, Tom L. Deellis, Ted Stern and Alvin McElhatton, the author.

The French government has offered 50,000 francs reward for the capture of a writer of letters. This person, the vilest "poison pen" wielder of history, has set afloat a wave of mass madness in the city of Paris, France. Prominent men and women have committed suicide, others have gone to the insane asylum on account of revelations of this writer. Read about it in next Sunday's TRIBUNE Magazine.

FIRE LOSSES IN U. S. ENORMOUS, IS INSURANCE CLAIM

Matches Blamed For Many Blazes; Money Cost Runs High.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Three hundred and thirty-four thousand dwellings at $600 each, sufficient to house 1,700,000 persons, could be built with the money lost in fires in the United States from 1915 to 1930, according to figures given out today by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

The board places the national fire loss during the five-year period at $1,572,723,577, based on an examination of over 3,000,000 reports of fires.

Matches and smoking hazards are held responsible for $800,000,000 of the losses, according to the report. Next comes electricity, which caused fires costing $266,000,000. Stoves, furnaces, boilers and pipes caused a loss of $233,000,000. Other causes include lightning and gas, $121,000,000, and "explosive," which means communicated fires, $223,000,000.

As a basis of comparison, the underwriters figure that the five-year losses of the nation would build $5000 homes for the entire population of Nevada, Wyoming and Connecticut. They would erect 16,722 school houses at $100,000 each, or would purchase 16,722 grams of radium, the costliest of earth's products.

Sixty-seven per cent, $856,000,000 of the total loss, was caused as strictly or partly preventable.

New York suffered most heavily with a loss of $164,000,000. Pennsylvania came second with $77,000,000. Illinois third with $68,000,000. Low New Jersey with $70,000,000. Ohio with $62,000,000. Texas with $59,000,000. Massachusetts with $54,000,000 and California with $54,000,000.

BOGUS COIN IS GIVEN GERMAN FOR U. S. MONEY

BERLIN, Feb. 3.—Another issue of United States Confederate money in $10 bills, has been put on the market in Germany and several prominent merchants have been victimized to the extent of thousands of dollars. Scores of others have accepted the bad bills in smaller amounts.

A few months ago the Confederate money, suspiciously bright and clean, was passed quietly around to unsuspecting shopkeepers and to several of the visiting Americans who displayed carelessness in making change. At that time a warning was issued by the banks and the newspapers advised readers to use discretion.

The latest known victim is a merchant who sold a bill of goods for $900 in cash and accepted the Confederate currency. He was paid to the American Association of Commerce and Trade in Berlin.

German merchants recently also have been accepting counterfeit German 50-mark notes, many of which are in circulation, although the police succeeded in capturing the counterfeiters.

"If you saw a full-grown human hammer, a defenseless horse, or even a dog, you would promptly call the humane society headquarters," says Geraldine in next Sunday's magazine. "But if a mother is pampering a baby, it's hands off!" Then Geraldine proceeds to have a word about Baby Slippers generally.

ENGAGEMENT TO TAYLOR DENIED BY MISS MINTER

Youthful Actress Extravagant in Praise of Dead Man; Defends Miss Normand.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 3.—Mary Miles Minter today denied rumors that she had been engaged to William Desmond Taylor, her former director, found murdered in his home in Los Angeles yesterday.

Miss Minter was among the first to reach the Taylor home after news of the tragedy had been given out. She broke down and wept hysterically.

"No, I was never engaged to Mr. Taylor, I regret to say," the youthful actress told the United Press today. "Stories that I visited him at his home on the afternoon of the day he was murdered are absurd. I was at my home reading a book."

"I have seen very little of him since my return from Europe some months ago."

"He didn't have an enemy in the world. He was too fine a man. Everyone admired and respected him."

"I doubt the rumor that he was married and has a daughter in the east. He would surely have told me so if it were true."

"To my mind, William Desmond Taylor can be compared only to George Bernard Shaw."

"I could use every adjective of praise in the English language and still I could not explain to you what a wonderful man he was."

Miss Minter strongly defended Mabel Normand, whom police say visited Taylor at his home on the night of the murder.

"I love little Mabel Normand and I want the whole world to know I love her," Miss Minter cried, impetuously. "I love her for her every quality and for herself. All the picture people do!"

Here's Description Of Man Hunted in Death Mystery

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Police today are combing Southern California for this man, seen by Mrs. Douglas MacLean today, leave the home of William D. Taylor, murdered film director, immediately after a shot was heard.

Slain Man's Servant Accused of Vagrancy

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Henry Peazy, valet who found the body of William D. Taylor yesterday morning, is under arrest on a charge of social vagrancy, it developed today.

Peazy had been released from police custody on bail furnished by Taylor a few hours before Taylor met his death, Patrolman S. G. White said.

White arrested Peazy in Westlake park on a charge of being loitering and disorderly.

Because he will be a material witness at the inquest into Taylor's death, the municipal charge against the valet has been taken off the calendar. No date has been set for trial.

Legion Commander Declines Senate Seat

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 3.—Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, refused to accept appointment to the United States Senate from Iowa to succeed William S. Kenyon, Colonel Washington Bowie, Jr., announced at a meeting of the legion executive committee of the legion yesterday, at which Colonel MacNider was present.

Colonel Bowie said Colonel MacNider declined the post to remain at the head of the American Legion in Baltimore.

Colonel Bowie said today that his information came from a member of Colonel MacNider's party.

ARREST IN L. A. MURDER MYSTERY EXPECTED TODAY

Police Say They Have Clues to Person Who Shot Director Taylor.

before it was hurriedly removed by his friends.

A million dollars will be spent, if necessary, to solve the murder mystery, Joseph L. Lasky, of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, informed the United Press today.

WITH FAMOUS PLAYERS FOR FIVE YEARS.

Taylor had been with Famous Players-Lasky for five years. The productions of that company were largely influenced by Taylor's artistic and executive ability.

"The best detective brains in the world will be hired to capture the assassin," Lasky said.

"The resources of our organization will be put to work to hasten the ends of justice."

"We have entered actively upon plans for detection of the murderer. Time and money will be spent to the limit to avenge the murder of our friend."

Elaborate plans for the funeral are under way. Arrangements will be in charge of the Motion Picture Directors' Association, of which Taylor was president.

Cigarette Stubs Clew to Mystery

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—A half dozen cigarette stubs offered a key to a mystery which for twenty-four hours has been deeper than any developed in his work by William Desmond Taylor, noted motion picture director, telling his death Wednesday night at his home here from a slayer's bullet, according to investigators.

These half-smoked remains found near the back door of his luxurious apartment residence gave mute evidence that some man apparently waited nervously there on the evening of the murder.

They link with statements by Mrs. Douglas MacLean, wife of a motion picture actor, that on the evening of the murder she heard a shot fired, and looking from the window of her home, which overlooks that of Taylor, she saw a man, stranger to her, emerge from the front door of Taylor's home, look back through and apparently speak, close the door and depart.

Another link is a statement by employees at an oil service station that within an hour prior to the time a stranger whom they describe similarly asked them where W. D. Taylor lived, and they directed him to the place where the murder later occurred. The crew of a street car and information that at a time closely corresponding to that which Mrs. MacLean gives as the departure of the mystery man from Taylor's house, a stranger boarded the car at a stop close by, from where passengers rarely board a car. They describe him similarly.

SUSPECT IS NOT FORMER SERVANT.

These revelations only served to deepen the mystery, for Mrs. MacLean, who knew the former servant of Taylor, for whom the police are seeking and who Taylor reported to the police some time ago as having stolen property and money from him, said that the stranger was not his servant. The porch light of Taylor's home was on and Mrs. MacLean observed him in his full glow. The movements of this stranger coincide with the visit of Miss Normand, motion picture actress, to Taylor's home on the evening of the murder. Taylor escorted Miss Normand to her motor car and talked a few minutes with her there. The front door to his home was open. Investigators suggest that the stranger, who had been nervously smoking cigarettes while waiting for an opportunity to get at Taylor, apparently entered the apartment while the door was open and Taylor was out talking to Miss Normand.

STORIES AGREE.

The time Miss Normand fixed as that of her departure closely corresponds to the time Mrs. MacLean fixes as having heard the shot, an indication possibly, investigators say, that the stranger shot Taylor immediately after Taylor returned to the house and seated himself before his desk to continue work on his income tax statement.

Miss Edna Purviance, motion picture actress, who occupies a two-story bungalow similar to that of Taylor in the same court or group of buildings, informed the police that she returned home about midnight Wednesday and observed lights burning in Taylor's home. She said she thought nothing of it, as she knew Taylor to be a deep reader who often remained up late. She said she was awakened the following morning by screams of Taylor's negro valet, who upon reporting for work at Taylor's house discovered the body of his employer and fled shrieking down the court.

Hollywood May Lose Film Industry

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Headquarters of the motion picture world may practically abandon Hollywood and move east to Long Island.

This plan, said to have been proposed by Will H. Hays, was given impetus today by news of the murder of the prominent director, William Desmond Taylor, which capped a long string of scandal surrounding movie activities on the Pacific coast.

Hays plans to have a community church in the center of the new movie city on Long Island.

FLASH SPEEDS.

Three Actresses Grilled In L. A. Murder Mystery

Special Correspondent International News Service. (Copyright, 1922, by International News Service.)

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Through the silver screen on which the moving picture idols troop in silent drama for their millions of admirers, detectives plunged today in a desperate effort to solve the mystery in the slaying of William Desmond Taylor, one of the best known directors in all filmland.

Behind the screen they ripped straight into the private lives of three public idols. They were ordered to spare no person, however mighty, if their investigation promised to clear the air of the stunning murder, the world of movies when Taylor was found shot to death in his South Alvarado street home.

He was slain, detectives believe, less than half an hour after a visit by Mabel Normand, screen favorite, to whom Taylor was once reported engaged. Three motion picture actresses whose names are household words, were spitted over a fire of close questioning by the detectives as they carried on their investigation of the faster moving picture set of Hollywood.

BEAUTIES ADORN WALLS.

The detectives pointed out a score of smiling photographs of film beauties smiled down at the ugly scene of death and that a larger one, beautifully framed, must have gazed at the crime.

The detectives sent into Hollywood to run down the slayer of Taylor were instructed to enter no whisper of gossip that might bring the answer to the riddle of death. They were told to inquire especially, it was stated, about a recent "party" where dope, ether, cocaine and morphine took the place of wine and whiskey.

Age brawl, it was declared, in which two infuriated women attacked each other and fought as men fight until their clothes were ripped off. Both of them, the report insists, were known to the police. They were to be questioned during the day.

Harding Says Millions Are Saved by Economy

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Announcing prospects of a surplus of governmental receipts over expenditures this fiscal year as a result of economies in administration, President Harding speaking today at the second business meeting of the government, declared he doubted "if any government in the world has made a more persistent and conscientious effort to cut down its expenditures and institute economies and restore sane and normal ways than has the American government."

The President and Director Daves of the budget, who followed him, announced to the meeting composed of more than a thousand government officials of high and low degrees that direct savings of $32,000,000 and indirect savings of more than $104,000,000 had been accomplished in less than six months through the operation alone of the budget bureau and co-ordinating agencies.

Harding expressed the further opinion that the efforts on the part of the government to reduce its expenditures had been reflected among the people at large. He said:

"I cannot but feel that the government has in the budget organization set an example of care and thrift that has helped to guide to make saving fashionable. If to some extent the government has been in so praiseworthy a cause we ought all to be gratified to have had a part in the affair. Much of the extravagance of the government has been due to a lack of sense of individual responsibility and the same is true in the corporate world and in the private affairs of the people. If our efforts here shall set a standard and inspire an ambition for greater economies and higher efficiency, we shall have served not only the government but the whole people, particularly well. Perhaps our example will be of service to the world."

The President reiterated his opposition to deficiency appropriations and made a plea for an understanding among officials of the government but questioned the propriety of departmental advantage, is the end at which all of us must aim."

Discussing the prospects of a surplus instead of a deficit as was generally expected, Harding appealed for a continuation of the careful and painstaking effort which has been made continuously during the first half of the year, and added:

"In a business so great as that of the national government unexpected reverses will not infrequently swell the total of calculated revenues. It seems likely that this will be true during the current year. But despite this possibility it now seems probable that the restrictions upon expenditures which have been possible by reason of the administration's general policy and your splendid co-operation would have resulted in a surplus when compared with the estimated deficiency of $24,500,000 that was outlined in the budget figure submitted to Congress in December is certainly an indication of much satisfaction to all of us."

SPOUL'S HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—Damage estimate at $3000 was done yesterday to the home of Robert Sproul, comptroller of the university, at 2737 Elmwood avenue, in a fire of mysterious origin.

Mrs. Sproul did not discover the flames until the roof was well ablaze. She seized her two children, Marian, 4, and Robert, 2, and after carrying them to safety returned to see personal belongings and furniture. Neighbors assisted her in saving a large amount of property.

Damage by fire was confined to the upper story of the house while water caused considerable damage to lower portions. Defective wiring is believed to have been the cause of the fire.

Cheaters Punished By Student Committee

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—Three students punished by the student affairs committee for cheating in examinations is the record so far this term in the campaign for further recognition of the honor spirit on the campus.

Suspension from the university for cheating in a military examination was the sentence meted out to a junior student while the student from whose work he copied was barred from active participation in campus affairs for six months.

Loss of credit in a physics course was given as punishment for a foreign student who confessed to copying a wrong solution for a problem from another student.

Infant Dies While Its Mother Sleeps

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—While Mrs. Lily Echols, a deaf mute, slept in her home at 261 Wallace street, her two-months-old baby boy lay dead at her feet, a plumber, discovered his babe dead and the coroner was notified. An autopsy is being performed to determine whether the child was suffocated in the bed, strangled or smothered by the effects of a cold in the head, from which he had been suffering.

MABEL NORMAND, NEAR COLLAPSE, DESCRIBES VISIT

Comedienne Gives Details of Call At Home of Taylor, Later Found Dead.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Mabel Normand today told the United Press of her visit to the home of William Desmond Taylor on the night he was murdered.

Miss Normand is near collapse from the tragedy.

Tears stood in her eyes as she spoke. Her little body quivered and shook, evidencing the nervous strain she is experiencing.

"I've known Mr. Taylor for years," the comedienne said. Her voice broke as she spoke of the dead man.

There was never any love affair existing between us—never!

I loved Mr. Taylor simply as a good comrade—a pal with whom I could discuss subjects in which we were mutually interested.

For instance, I have been studying French. Mr. Taylor, who spoke French fluently, helped me improve.

I am somewhat interested in philosophy and metaphysics. Again, in those subjects he was an invaluable teacher.

I seldom saw Mr. Taylor except at a gathering of friends, it's true. But I frequently conversed with him over the telephone. As a general rule this was merely to ask certain questions regarding the subjects in which I am interested.

TELLS OF FATAL NIGHT.

Then the star of "Mickey" and "Molly O" told of her visit to Westlake Terrace court on the fatal night.

"I was the first time I had ever called upon Mr. Taylor alone," she said, speaking in a low tone.

Then I stopped in for a few moments on my way home in response to a message from Mr. Taylor left with my secretary.

"The message stated that Mr. Taylor had already sent a book I wanted to the house and had purchased another one I wanted particularly—and had it at his home."

It was for this book that I stopped at the Terraces on my way home.

Newspapermen ascertained that this book was one of Freud's recent works on sex psycho-analysis.

"I arrived at Mr. Taylor's home about 7 o'clock Wednesday evening and left at 7:45," Miss Normand said.

"He accompanied me to my car at the curb on Alvarado street and chatted for a few moments."

"He laughingly criticised my literary taste; there was a copy of the 'Poland Gazette' in the car, and he thought it didn't fit in very well with Nietzsche and Freud."

PROMISED TO PHONE.

After he had said good-night and promised to phone me within an hour, he directed William, my chauffeur, to drive me home.

"Being tired and having a studio call for 7:30 Thursday morning, I called to my room. In a few moments I was in bed, where I had dinner served to me."

"That was about 8:15. Then I dropped off to sleep and slept until Edna Purviance phoned me yesterday morning the news of Mr. Taylor's death."

MISS PURVIANCE IS LEADING LADY WITH CHARLIE CHAPLIN.

She has a court bungalow near Taylor's.

"Did I know that Mr. Taylor was married?" Miss Normand repeated an interviewer's question. "No, I didn't. People had told me, but I don't know if it was true. Mr. Taylor had never discussed his private affairs; there was no reason for his doing so."

"Oh, I am so terribly shocked over this tragedy I don't know what to do or say," the dark-eyed little star said wearily.

It doesn't seem possible that anyone so lovable—a man who had so many friends and not a known enemy—could have been so brutally murdered.

"One prayer is that the murderer be apprehended and punished, however horrible, be meted out to him."

There are 250,000 Syrians in the United States.

"Papers Full of Crime" If That's All You Look For

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—The reason there is a prevalent belief that newspapers print a great quantity of crime news is the way in which the average reader reads a newspaper.

Column one—Disarmament conference, um um um, Japan, um, Hughes, um, Shantung, um. Finished.

Column two—Stillman case, no, um, close attention. Occasional murmur of 'em you beat that?"

Column three—The farmer bloc in congress. The reader, um, um. Well, I know what I think of farmers. Finished.

Column four—Murder. The reader: 'Say, here's mystery in real life. Why, it's as good as a novel.' No further sound from him for 12 minutes. Finished.

Column five—Orchestra deficit. Orchestra must be saved. The reader, is that so. Well, let somebody save it then. Finished.

By that time, White said, the reader turns hurriedly to the sports page and, after having earned his rest, sleeps, his slumbers disturbed, however, by the thought of the crime and scandal the papers print.

Captain Hussey Is Chosen Naval Attache

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Captain C. L. Hussey, in charge of the naval reserve force division at Washington, has been ordered to London as naval attache at the American embassy, relieving Rear-Admiral Nathan C. Twining, who has been designated to command the special service squadron.

ICE CREAM COSTS WILL JUMP; SALE ENDS PRICE WAR

Miller Interests Purchased in Oakland District and Also in S. F.

The war existing between ice cream men for the past year was at an end today, and the wholesale price of the product will be advanced as the result of the sale yesterday of the interests of the Miller Ice Cream company in Oakland and San Francisco.

The local Miller concern was bought by W. E. Keller, capitalist of Los Angeles and president of the Globe Grain and Milling company, while the interests in San Francisco were purchased by C. O. Swanberg, president of the Merchants' Ice and Cold Storage company. News of the deal became known when ice cream manufacturers in the bay region announced a proposed increase in the wholesale price.

Some months ago the Miller firm reduced the price of its product to dealers in Oakland and San Francisco and other manufacturers were forced into a price-cutting battle for business. Several weeks ago dealers were paying from 90 cents to $1 a gallon, and an even lower price was looked for.

Relative to the announced increase in prices R. J. Dryden, president of the Dryden Corporation, manufacturer of Cream of Cream ice cream, today denied his corporation was involved in any combination to raise prices on the product.

"This increase will become effective February 6 and will not cause an increase in the retail price of our ice cream," he added.

ron, it was announced today at the navy department. He formerly was chief of staff of the Pacific fleet.

Mountain Moved to Extend City

View of one of the most colossal engineering feats ever attempted which is now well under way—the moving of a mountain. The mountain is the Morro de Castello, at Rio de Janeiro, and the substance of it will make a three-mile extension to the city in Rio de Janeiro bay. From the spot thus leveled the city will reclaim some sixty-six square blocks right in the heart of the town. Hydraulic methods are now being introduced to "ditch" the dirt away, a method much more rapid than steam shovels.—Underwood & Underwood photo.

Peace With Mexico Held Not Assured

MANHATTAN, Kan., Feb. 3.—"The assured promise for peace with Mexico is not as promising as recent reports would indicate," Major General James G. Harbord, assistant chief of staff, said in an address here before the student body at the Kansas State Agricultural College. "All through the border regions we have been waited upon by committees requesting more troops than are stationed there," he said.

POISONS GINGERBREAD.
PARIS, Feb. 2.—Because several friends had divided Alice Delacroix's ability as a cook, she sent them poisoned gingerbread. The court sent her to prison for five years.

Firm Gives Redwood Tract to State

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—A gift of a tract of redwood forest on the south fork of the Bear river, in Humboldt county, approximating thirty acres, has been made to the state by the Hammond Lumber company of San Francisco. The tract is said to be valued at between $6000 and $7000. Several donations have recently been made to the state of redwood tracts in that vicinity. The sum of $100,000 was appropriated by the last Legislature to make the forest a permanent state park.

The province of New Brunswick has more moose than any other area in North America.

Challenge on Figures Still Unaccepted

The Anti-Division League adheres to the statement that the tax rate under the proposed county division charter will be $5.43 on the $100 instead of $4.91 as now.

If the charter league disputes these figures why not accept the challenge made 21 days ago that the charter league expert check the figures with the Anti-Division League experts and if they fail to agree, that both sides select a third expert to settle any disputes?

HAVE YOU READ THE CHARTER?

Would you, in everyday business affairs, endorse a document without full knowledge of what it contained?

DO YOU KNOW THAT THE PROPOSED CHARTER

Restores the vicious ward system?

Provides for the election of councilmen by wards, thus enabling a minority to obtain control of the local government?

Adds the entire cost of county government to city government?

Open the door for unlimited expenditures through creation of new offices, departments, and boards, and the employment of innumerable experts, deputies and clerks with salaries to be fixed by the manager or council?

Destroys civil service?

Twice removes control of schools from people. Council appoints mayor and mayor appoints school board?

Permanently bottles up Oakland and prevents future expansion? Contains franchise provisions framed by public service corporation attorneys?

Places city at complete mercy of franchise grabbers?

Gives manager appointment of public utility commission?

Places the manager under the control of a bare majority of council, while charter of Sacramento and other cities take manager out of politics by requiring a practically unanimous vote to remove him, after public hearing?

These are only a few of the objectionable provisions.

MARINES HOLD 75 AFTER FALSE ALARM SOUNDED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 3.—Seventy-five persons, including government officials, were imprisoned for fifteen minutes at the point of bayonets in the federal building here late yesterday when a postoffice employee accidentally stopped on an electric switch signal and the marine post at guard turned out.

Marines with fixed bayonets guarded every exit from the building while others searched the building for a disturbance. Oscar Schmitt, chief agent for the department of justice, tried to leave the building, but was halted. He showed his credentials to the guard, but neither that display nor an attempt to "tell it to the marines" gained him permission to leave the building until it was determined that the alarm was accidental.

Auto Traded for Goat But Wife of Goat Owner Kicks

(Special to The TRIBUNE) MODESTO, Feb. 3.—What is undoubtedly the rock-bottom price for automobiles was registered at Riverbank, near here, when Bob Adams traded his "515" machine for a goat. This unusually low figure did not suit the wife of the man who had owned the goat and she went to Adams' home and retrieved the animal.

Constable Perrin was called into the case and with diplomacy settled the case. He returned the automobile to Adams and allowed the woman to retain her goat.

Survey shows the Gulf of Mexico to be nine-tenths of a foot higher than the Atlantic ocean.

PLOTS FOUND IN LIFE ABOUT YOU BEST FOR FILMS

Delving Into Old Books for Ideas for Modern Day Plays. Time Wasted.

While it is necessary that you search for a plot in the life about you rather than in books, it is wise to be acquainted with the best short stories of the world while writing the scenario-story which you intend to enter in the $5000 competition which The TRIBUNE is conducting. Read as widely as possible in the world's great stories. By so doing you will not only avoid as far as possible the danger of discovering that a plot you suppose to be new is really old, but you also will consciously or unconsciously learn something of the story-teller's art.

Even though it is inadvisable to adopt plots from well-known masterpieces, you will gain much valuable practice by trying to determine which of the short stories you read would lend themselves to moving picture presentation and what changes would be necessary before such adaptation could be made.

LITERATURE UNSUITED. Much of the world's best narrative literature is totally unsuited to making in its present stage of development and an effort to discover why certain kinds of action and certain types of character-portrayals are suited to scenario writing will do much to assist you in solving your own problems. In general, you will gain most from reading narratives about things and people such as you might be acquainted with. See, for instance, how an author extracts the romance from the lives of dingo dwellers in a small middle western town or catches the dramatic and human moments in the lives of village grocers and underworld crooks.

STRING QUARTET'S PROGRAM PLEASES

By ROY HARRISON DANFORTH. The London String Quartet proved masterful at choosing as well as at playing programs when it appeared before the Berkeley Musical Association last evening. Mozart, Debussy, Beethoven—here was a trio, for choice and, arranged in the order, as carefully chosen a succession as the courses of a French dinner. Melodious Mozart, emotional Debussy, mighty Beethoven—how particular a person must be not to find satisfaction in that.

The quartet has a fineness of finish that is uncommonly impressive. We seldom have heard more nearly perfect unison, either of performance or purpose. The alto part of the Mozart B minor quartet and the adagio and presto of the L minor Beethoven quartet were examples. Besides, the playing was as clear as mountain stars and as delicately graceful as the hands of a danseuse. Individual excellence was exhibited by all of the strings; there was thus the material for an impeccable ensemble.

The Mozart number was all poetry. That Debussy emotional stream, which is as constant as James' "stream of consciousness," was a study in the various phases of majesty. The adagio has never been excelled here for the reverential attitude it bore to the Master of Musicians. One emerged from it as from the moss-grown doorway of an ancient abbey.

An interlude inserted in the concert was one of the "Pixie Dances" of H. Waldo Warner, violinist of the orchestra which won him the Coolidge prize. It was a delightful bit, whimsical, definitely programmatic.

Many persons with teeth chattering left during the program, a reminder of a winter evening in Harmon gymnasium. Sometime Berkeley, a city of 70,000 people and $50,000,000 assessed valuation, will plan a suitable auditorium.

Manitoba Denied a Vote on Boose Law

WINNIPEG, Feb. 3.—Unending aridity is all Winnipeg's advocates of modified prohibition through government controlled liquor stores, before them today. The legislature late last night rejected a referendum petition by the margin of two votes. The vote was 27 to 25.

Members of the Moderation League had introduced into the provincial body a petition for a referendum on the question of modified prohibition, providing for liquor sales in a manner largely similar to the existing Quebec method. Premier Norris favored the petition, and strongly urged its adoption.

"The Gold Spies—A Story of Hydraulic Mining" is the subject of George C. Henderson's latest special story on California's epic days, which will be published in The TRIBUNE Magazine next Sunday. There was a time when every man and woman in the gold country was a feudist in this great game of espionage, endeavoring to defeat the hydraulic law or to enforce it.

It is a marvelous portrayal of the human body at its best. One beholds in its composite detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, sparkling eyes, strong limbs, steady nerves and firm muscles; fairly vibrating in animation—keen, fresh, and spirited; with an air of unbounded confidence and a face radiant in color and illuminated with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.

Could Nature have taken you for her model? Suppose you study yourself in the mirror of the present and compare your looks, your feelings and your condition with the genuine characteristics of this picture of the human body in perfect working order. All parts of which are sound, well organized and disposed, performing their functions freely, naturally.

If you fall in any single point of resemblance, you are not the picture of health. It is imperative then, that you look to a means to rebuild your strength, energy and vigor—to bring your body up to a normal state of efficiency in all of its parts.

Women Study Plans for Clubhouse

By EDNA B. KINARD.

When Rockridge Club women launched the project of erecting a clubhouse they started in to learn all there was to be known about building construction. Mrs. C. R. Nelson, chairman of the building committee, eager to obtain what builders had to say about such structures and anxious to know what the two hundred clubwomen who were to be housed would demand for their comfort and necessity, inaugurated a dual system for the acquisition of their purpose. She prepared a questionnaire which was distributed to every Rockridge Club member. It was an exhaustive document which covered plans, cost and asked for suggestions along certain lines. A series of informal round-tables have been held with local builders and architects. All this data is to be presented before the February business meeting on Tuesday. The club will be called upon to make important decisions. The women are determined that May they witness the ceremony of turning the first spadeful of dirt which will be the signal that the clubhouse is under way and that September shall announce the formal housewarming.

At the meantime the building fund is growing. The success of the January drive, when $125 was added to the treasury, is inspiring a series of monthly functions.

What was experienced in interviewing local musicians will be told by Mrs. Ella F. Rowell on Monday before the women's history section. A meeting with Mrs. Henry Dalton, a program of music will be rendered by Mrs. W. P. L'Hermiteau and Mrs. William Divoll.

A two-part program will be featured at the meeting of Oakland Center, California Civic League of Women Voters, on Friday, February 10, in Ashmead temple. Mrs. Frank G. Law, state president; Mrs. H. M. Merrick, state chairman of legislation; and Mrs. William Palmer Lutton, state chairman of American citizenship, will present the program of work being carried on by the league, to which Oakland Center is auxiliary.

The proposed amendment to the Woman's Right Bill, which is designed to make of equal rank the man and woman citizen, will lend the theme for discussion. Mrs. William Kent, prominent in the Woman's Party sponsoring the amendment, will present the affirmative arguments.

Louis Kennedy, tax assessor, will review before the economics section meeting at 11 a. m. on the same date, the methods which are followed in county assessment.

Plans for a memorial to the boys who entered the world war from Oakland will be discussed at the Thursday meeting of War Mothers. Any woman who sent a son or daughter into the ranks is eligible to membership. To provide a treasury to take care of the many activities, a card party is being arranged in addition to the dance which will be given in the Arcadia on February 24.

Mrs. Charles D. Mahoney, president, has called a meeting of the board of directors at her home on Monday. The personnel of the committees will be named, and the year's program of work outlined.

Practical support has been pledged by the Junior Red Cross Shop, 376 Twelfth street, by Claremont and Santa Fe School Parent Teacher Associations in the contribution money, of from twenty to twenty-five new or rehabilitated garments. Other

TERMINUS FOR L. A. SPEEDERS TO BE ROCK PILE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—An old proverb reads, "He travels far who travels fast," and Police Judge Ray L. Chesbro adds that the terminus of the route is likely to be the rock pile if the traveling is done too fast and in an automobile.

He has caused to be established at the Lincoln Heights police station a "speeders' rock pile," and announced he would send to it violators of the city traffic laws.

Mothers' clubs are falling into line with similar pledges. A clothing drive is now in progress throughout Oakland Federation which is supporting the nutrition classes in the public schools from the shop proceeds.

Women of the city are invited to assist in the work by offering the white elephants of their homes to the stock. Clothing, shoes, hats for men, women and children, furniture, bric-a-brac, jewelry, household furnishings, etc., including magazines—all, of course, in usable condition, are needed. A telephone call to Lakeside 101 will summon an automobile. A ready sale is obtained for all stock which is offered at minimum rates.

Amidst the excitement of the current has inspired the dance which the Manzanita Parent Teacher Association and graduate students are uniting in giving tonight in the school auditorium. Mrs. A. E. Thurston, Mrs. Elmer Appelroff and Mrs. Harold, representing the mothers' club, with James Thurston of Fremont High School are arranging the benefit.

The region drained by the Colorado river has been styled the Asia Minor of America.

IMPROVED ROAD MILEAGE RECORD IS SET BY OHIO

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 1.—State Director of Highways Herrick announced that Ohio has taken from Pennsylvania the nation's record as to mileage of improved roads built within a year. He stated that more than 1000 miles of new highways were constructed by the state highway department in Ohio last year. The previous record, 760 miles in a year, was held by Pennsylvania.

Inasmuch as but a relatively small amount of uncompleted road-building remains in the Buckeye state, special attention will be given this year to maintenance work. Director Herrick said. He plans awarding contracts this year for something over 350 miles of road-building and hopes not only to lessen the cost, but increase the efficiency of the maintenance or repair work. It is planned this year, as last, to go over the entire mileage under state maintenance.

SEMI-PETRIFIED WOOD IS FOUND BY WELL DIGGERS

Geologists' Claim That Irvington Is Over Underground Lake Shore Sustained.

IRVINGTON, Feb. 3.—Evidence, held as conclusive corroboration of statements made by geologists, that Irvington is situated over the shoreline of the great underground Nile's cone, which is the remains of a prehistoric great lake, has been found by well diggers employed here by F. A. Leal.

While excavating for a well the workmen came upon parts of a semi-petrified grove of pine trees at a depth of 128 feet. Portions of their trunks and limbs have been sent to the geological department of the University of California for examination by scientists.

Geologists have long maintained that the underground water basin, now known as the Nile's cone, ended a few hundred yards in the south of Irvington. They declare that the finding of the nearly petrified bits of pine trees and hard plants at such a depth substantiates their claims.

It is explained that the majority of the bills of prehistoric wood found by the workmen was felled on the surface of the great lake which later became the bed of a river, which in turn, filled up the flat land until its deposits diverted the stream to other channels.

As the result of the discovery it is believed that further investigation in the hope of finding more of the wood deposits will be made by geological experts.

300 ASSEMBLE IN S. F. TO MAP WAR ON ILLITERACY

Earnest Advocates of Universal Education Discuss Methods.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—More than three hundred delegates, the majority of them educators met in conference here today for the purpose of mapping out a plan of action for the war against illiteracy, no matter where it exists. The gathering is known as the illiteracy conference of the West. Eleven Western states are represented. The conference is being held under the auspices of the illiteracy commission of the National Education Association. It will end tomorrow afternoon.

Today's session was presided over by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart of Frankfort, Ky., president of the illiteracy commission of that state and founder of the so-called "moonlight" schools.

NOTABLE SPEAKERS. Speakers at the conference will include President David P. Barrows of the University of California, Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young, Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor emeritus Stanford University, and the following state superintendents of public instruction: Will C. Wood, California; W. F. Huntington, Nevada; Josephine C. Preston, Washington; and John V. Conway, New Mexico.

Others on the program are Mrs. Stewart, A. C. Mathewson, state director of alien registration and instruction, and William J. Cooper, superintendent of schools, Fresno; Mark Keppel, superintendent of Los Angeles county schools; Mrs. Minnie D. Bean, president of the Washington State Education Association, Tacoma, and Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald, president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

The conference plans to enlist the cooperation of schools, women's clubs and fraternal organizations in bringing about part-time education, lecture work and evening schools as part of an anti-illiteracy campaign.

ESTIMATE OF STATUS. It is estimated that the percentage of illiterates in these states is as follows:

Arizona, 39,331 illiterates or 15.3 per cent of population; California, 86,582 or 3.3 per cent; Colorado, 24,204 or 2.2 per cent; Idaho, 4,924 or 1.5 per cent; Montana, 9,544 or 2.3 per cent; Nevada, 5,802 or 5.9 per cent; New Mexico, 41,637 or 16.6 per cent; Oregon, 9,317 or 1.6 per cent; Utah, 6,261 or 1.9 per cent; Washington, 15,526 or 1.7 per cent; and Wyoming, 3,194 or 2.1 per cent. "Moonlight" schools in New Mexico have given many adult illiterates their first opportunities to learn to read and write, John V. Conway, state superintendent of public instruction of New Mexico, told the conference today.

Students at many of the "moonlight" schools brought lanterns to supply the light for their work, Conway said. The classes met three times a week in the district school

When the first ones arrived they were urged to bring their friends to the next session of the school. Local literates in addition to the regular school teachers were used in the teaching. ATTEMPT TO KILL CHARGED TO L. A. DRY LAW AGENT

Three Other Dry Sleuths Are Named in the Accusation Following Raid.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—C. H. Wheeler, prohibition agent in charge of field work in southern California, was lodged in the Los Angeles county jail yesterday in default of $20,000 bail on a charge of assault with intent to kill. The charge, made by James Flore, who was arrested January 30 by Wheeler, was embodied in a complaint issued from the county district attorney's office.

James Pierce, J. A. Doyle and Joe Krumhansel, prohibition agents, were charged in the complaint jointly with Wheeler. Doyle and Krumhansel were on the way to San Francisco, it was stated at the district attorney's office, and their arrest there will be sought by telegraphic warrant. Pierce was said to be in Los Angeles but had not been

FIRE IN NORMAL SPOILS SCHOOL YEAR FOR 1000

EAST LAS VEGAS, N. M., Feb. 3.—The main building of the New Mexico Normal University here was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin which started last night. More than 1000 students of the college will be unable to complete the school year as a result of the fire. The college library of more than 8000 volumes and a valuable archeological collection maintained in the college were destroyed.

located at the time a warrant was served upon Wheeler.

Wheeler was arraigned before Justice J. Walter Hanby who fixed the bail. Friends of Wheeler said a bond would be forthcoming but it would take some time to arrange it.

Flore, an Italian subject, charged he was strung up to a curtain pole by a pair of handcuffs and beaten and kicked by the agents after his place had been searched for liquor. He also alleged that Barlo Farraro, 11, son of a neighbor, was beaten.

Flore is being treated at a hospital for a broken rib and other injuries. Wheeler denied there had been undue force used, declaring Flore resisted arrest, and it was necessary to subdue him. The agent said he was handcuffed to a curtain pole "which would have broken at five pounds pressure."

Business Men Join Strong Protest Against Division

separate from 40 per cent of the county's population and wealth and antagonize a big percentage of this outlying population every Oakland merchant will suffer a great loss of business, which means a greater loss of profits because the business which would be lost is the business which now pays him the profit above his overhead expenses. County division will decrease the value of Oakland property and I shall vote "No."

SUGGESTS REPORTS.

D. A. Sargent, certified public accountant—We have read a great deal of the arguments pro and con on the new city and county charter dispute; a great deal of which centers around reports certified to by Klink, Bean & Co. and Messrs. Lester, Herrick & Herrick for the consolidationists, and William Dolge & Co. for the Anti-Division League. While it has not been my privilege to go into the details of any one of these certified reports, it is apparent from the arguments as presented by both sides that there are wide diversifications of opinion or else there has been a limitation placed upon the scope of these certifications that has impaired their worth, as we do not believe that either side has been permitted to make a comprehensive study of the subject that there could be approximately $1,000,000 a year difference in their calculations. We believe that if these three reports, with all supporting papers and the contracts under which the work was entered into, were presented to a group of three Oakland certified public accountants and the three reputable attorneys—these six to report as to the fairness and the conclusions that they would deduct from the reports submitted—the findings of the majority could be published by photographic copy over their signatures by both sides—in the newspaper organs, through which they are conducting their battle. This ought to bring to a definite issue the main point now under consideration, as to whether or not a saving in taxes could be effected through consolidation. I would suggest that one certified public accountant and one attorney be selected by each side to choose the third member.

AGAINST DIVISION.

George Clark, Attorney, of Elston, Clark and Nichols—I am against this county division. I do not believe there would be any saving resulting from the plan. I believe the supposed economies have been greatly exaggerated.

Emil Nusbaumer, Attorney—There is no economy in piling up governments. The pretended saving to be accomplished by this scheme now before the people is mere false pretense. It means added expense instead of retrenchment or economy.

Mrs. H. J. Platts, President, Housewives' League and President, Glen View Women's Club—The new charter with its county segregation appendix is an ill-advised absurdity. So clear is its purpose to take away the voting power of the people that I consider it a direct slap at equal suffrage. The great aim of the county division is to have all the officers ruling from the city and county at the beck and call of the hidden schemers. For this purpose the civil service will be entirely wrecked by the new charter. Most of the positions, including all the important officials, are appointed by one man for whom we have the privilege of voting. City employees who have given the best years of their lives to their work and who have become proficient will be fired at a moment's notice and with not a vestige of a chance to appeal to an independent board. I advise every woman to vote against this scheme because if it should carry no one can tell how high taxes will mount. The charter leaves practically all the salary fixing to the politicians and we know what that means.

"WILL COST MILLION."

George S. Pierce, Merchant, East Oakland—That film story "Will save a million," ought to read "Will cost a million." Whoever heard of a bunch of politicians saving money for the taxpayers? If that new charter should become a law how long would it be before car fares beyond the county line of Oakland would be as soon as we cross the county line we are taxed another fare. Does any Oaklander believe the local street car company is going to lose its chance for more income? There are a hundred "bugs" in the charter just as bad for the citizen as the one I have mentioned.

Mrs. Aaron Turner—If the county divisionists are truly anxious to improve conditions why do they start out by trying to kill the very best insurance for good government we have, viz., civil service. The division charter will absolutely kill all civil service and will leave open to the politicians the filling of every position in the government with any ward heelers they please. This is intolerable and the people should vote "No" next Tuesday. If they did not their taxes increased. There has never yet been a case in which political reformers (?) have decreased taxes. That is not what they are in the political business for.

SHOULD REDUCE TAXES.

R. B. Bell, Attorney—I am inclined to agree with the belief that the present division scheme is sponsored by the banks and the street railway company, the former to collect interest on the company's bonds, which has not been paid for two years, and the latter to increase earnings through a rise in fares based on the traversing of several counties. I am not at all satisfied that there would be a saving effected either for Berkeley or Oakland by a division of the county. What we need to reduce our tax rate is economy in government, not a division of the county. I believe also that the separation of the county would injure the University of California, for other counties then would be interested more in lowering their own tax rates than in helping the university.

Phillip M. Carey, Attorney—I am opposed to county division because it is wrong in principle—not consolidation, but separation. There would be four units, each with the expense of a county government instead of all paying for one government. If this plan carries and we should ever get the naval base it will be in San Francisco and not Alameda county, for San Francisco will gobble up Alameda if it is left out in the cold. We in America believe in democracy and not in a one-man power in government, such as this make-believe city manager plan involves.

SHORT SKIRTS HEALTHIER, SAY WOMEN DEANS

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LARGE WIRE TO TREASURY.
CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Chicago women who know girls and their reaction to dress have expressed approval of the statements of Dr. Elizabeth Theilberg of Vassar College, who declared that the health, strength and beauty of the modern girl are directly traceable to her mode of dressing.
"I agree with everything Dr. Theilberg says," said Miss Mary Ross Potter, dean of women at the Northwestern University. "Modern styles are merely expressive of a healthier, freer spirit."

Short skirts have nothing to do with improper dancing.
Miss Marion Talbot, dean of women at the University of Chicago, said:
"When I went to college I wore a train that dragged along the dusty sidewalk. Nothing could be more unhygienic. The short skirt of today is a big improvement. It is healthy, not immodest."
CLUB TO GIVE SOCIAL.
The Central Oakland Improvement club will hold a social in the Technical High school auditorium this evening. A musical program, including several numbers by the Technical High Boys' band, vocal solos by George Gelder, selection by a quartet, and other numbers, has been provided. Mrs. E. Darrouse will preside.

JEWISH RELIEF DRIVE PLANNED

A committee of Oakland citizens formed recently to co-operate with the American Jewish Relief Committee in raising a fund of $14,000,000 to be used principally in repatriating and rehabilitating the distressed of war-torn nations, will meet Sunday to adopt campaign methods. It was announced today. The meeting will be held in Covenant hall.
The committee is composed of A. S. Lavenson, chairman; Nat Kessler, Irving Jonas, William Smith, B. L. Mosbacher, J. Goldman, Ben Silverstein, Samuel Ghinsberg and Rabbi Rudolph J. Coffee.
A large meeting of Jewish citizens was held at Covenant hall Wednesday evening, when conditions of the persecuted Jews of Russia and Poland were explained by Jacob Bilikoff of Philadelphia, who spent three years abroad in relief work. He told how 300,000 orphans are left to be cared for by the Jews of America, many of the children having seen their entire families murdered in the pogroms during and following the war.

Bilikoff stated that the first $1,000,000 spent by Herbert Hoover was furnished by the American Jewish Relief Committee, this same being used for general relief purposes and leading up to the appropriation of $20,000,000 by Congress.
Rabbi Martin A. Meyer of San Francisco related his personal experiences and observations in Europe and compared the conditions with those at home.
Discussing the aid which America has sent to the six million starving Jews in Eastern Europe, Dr. Rudolph J. Coffee, the rabbi of the Temple Shalom, will preach on "The New Philanthropy" this evening.
Dr. Coffee will touch on the donations of John D. Rockefeller through the Rockefeller Institution of New York.
In speaking of his subject, Dr. Coffee stated: "The savior which American Jews have offered their starving brothers is without equal in the history of philanthropy, and the service which the Rockefeller Institution is giving in serving humanity is without a parallel in history."

Tributes Planned to Shackleton's Memory

MONTEVIDEO, Feb. 3.—An official and public demonstration is being arranged in honor of Sir Ernest Shackleton, explorer, when his body is embarked for England on the British steamship Andes on February 11.
President Bram has asked congress for authorization to render the same honors as are given a deceased cabinet minister, and it is planned to have a public procession, in which the local British organizations will participate and escort the body to the pier.
With regard to the plans for the burial of Sir Ernest Shackleton, a London despatch Thursday night quoted the Daily Mail as stating that the body would be taken to South Georgia Island and buried there in accordance with a decision attributed to Lady Shackleton in deference to what she believed would have been the explorer's wishes. His relatives and friends felt, said the newspaper, that it would accord with his desire to be laid to rest at the gates to the Antarctic. There has been no intimation as yet in Montevideo, however, that such instructions from the explorer's family have been received there.

Meetings to Be Held Throughout State to Meet the Applicants.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—The California Veterans' Welfare Board has approved 150 applications of ex-service men who are seeking state aid for the purchase of property under the farm and home purchase act.

With the tentative approval of these 150 applications the welfare board will begin the work of personally investigating the applicants themselves. To meet the men, meetings will be held in various parts of the state.

After the selection is made by the veteran the property is inspected and appraised and purchased for the successful applicant.

A payment of 10 per cent down will be required for a home and 10 per cent for a farm, the balance of the purchase price to be spread over a period of forty years at 5 per cent interest.

GIRLS SEE RIGHT FASHIONS OF SCHOOL DRESS

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Proper dress for the university co-ed and the high school miss will be indicated officially tonight for the first time, following the elaborate spring style and fashion show today at the University of Chicago under the auspices of the Federation of University Women.

School dresses, informal frocks, formal gowns and "top" costumes were to be displayed before President Harry Pratt Judson, Marion Talbot and Edith Foster Flint, deans of women at the university, and three deans of girls in the public high schools and other patrons and patronesses.

Every organization in the school was prepared to send a representative wearing the costumes believed to be proper.

One of the school dresses was of blue tricotine, tched in red, with three-quarter length sleeves lined in red. This dress was modest and hung about ten inches from the floor. One informal frock was of cotton crepe with half sleeves of light blue georgette.

Subs at Mare Island Rejected by Navy

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Six of the latest type submarines stationed on the Pacific Coast, the S-30 to S-35, inclusive, have been rejected by the Navy Department on account of faulty crank shafts. It was announced here today by Pacific fleet officials, and will be sent to New London, Conn., from Mare Island, Calif.

They will leave the Pacific in pairs, the first two to depart, the S-30 and the S-31, being due to start without convoy, March 15. This will be the first time submarines have attempted the 6000-mile voyage without convoy, according to navy officials. The others will leave two at a time at intervals.

The seven-inch crankshafts now in the S-raft will be replaced by eight-inch shafts and the submarines they will be brought back to the Pacific. It is stated.

(News from the submarines F-2, F-3 and L-5 to L-8 inclusive, will mean the S-raids on the run to New London.)

BOYS LAUNCH DRIVE TO CORNER 'PEACE DOLLARS'

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Future financiers, now operating as messenger boys in Wall street, have started a drive to corner the newly coined "peace" silver dollar.

The coins, of which slightly more than a million were minted, are selling at a premium of 25 to 50 cents each—the youthful buyers playing a "hunch" that the issue will be recalled because of criticism of its design and its general make-up, which does not admit of easy stacking.

The charge was brought by the Society to Prevent Cruelty to Animals.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1922.

AN EXPERT'S OPINION.

In the campaign preceding the November election the advocates of county division refused to meet the issue of the new charter proposed for adoption by the voters. They falsely said the charter was not to be voted on. In the present campaign they are attempting to evade the charter issue, but try to make much of the charter's version of the city manager scheme of government.

Sometime ago one of the defenders of county unity submitted the proposed charter to Mr. H. S. Gilbertson of Evanston, Illinois. Mr. Gilbertson, it is well to remember, drafted the original city manager law adopted in this country and is recognized as the leading authority in the United States on the city manager plan of government as it exists today. He was born in Oakland and was head of the historical department of the University of California in 1903. At present he is a member of the American Institute of Political Science and the author of many works on this subject. Here is a telegram from Mr. Gilbertson. We reprint it below because every interested citizen should have his attention called to the views expressed therein:

"Evanston, Ill., Feb. 2, 1922.
"Have examined Oakland charter and amendments, and while heartily in favor of the city manager plan believe the specific proposal is unfortunate in several vital particulars. Local districting on artificial lines certainly facilitates manipulation and minority rule. City manager should not be too secure, but power of removal by simple majority would make the place untenable to a suitable man, especially if the council is chosen by wards. Formation of a separate county comprising less than whole urban territory seems irrational and uneconomical. Charter should be made acceptable to Berkeley and Alameda, and the thing done right even if it takes time."

Now let us again separate this telegram, as was done in yesterday's Tribune, into its essential points and examine the faults in the proposed charter as they are related to the city manager plan of government:

First—Because local districting on artificial lines facilitates manipulation and minority rule.

Second—Because, while the position of city manager should not be too secure, the power of removal placed in a simple majority of the council, as this charter provides, would make the place untenable to a suitable man, especially if the council is chosen by wards.

Third—The formation of a separate county comprising less than the whole urban territory seems irrational and uneconomical.

Fourth—The charter should be made acceptable to Berkeley and Alameda, and "things done right even if it takes time."

THE TRIBUNE has repeatedly said that if there is a serious desire for the adoption of the city manager system, the advocates of that system may proceed toward their object, under a proper charter, without dividing Alameda county and destroying the unity of the continental side, without building a wall around Oakland and cutting off all the important urban and up-country territory from Oakland's trade and business, as the advocates of the scheme in its present form propose to do.

We find this expert, who is indisputably the highest authority on city manager government in the United States, takes the same view. He points to the important faults of the proposed charter as they are related to the plan of municipal government of which he is a staunch advocate. He condemns the hated ward system and the subjection of the city manager to the political coercion of a simple majority of the council, as well as the scheme to separate Oakland from the remainder of the county.

Those voters who are about to shape their attitude on the proposed charter by their ideas on the city manager plan should consider these observations of Prof. Gilbertson. They are worth more than all the ingenious sophistries pleaders of the new charter have made or may be able to make. They confirm the charge which this newspaper makes that these schemers are not half so much interested in a city manager as they are in a political effort to put the present Oakland city administration out of office and to advance the interests of certain utility corporations.

Vote "No" on February 7th.

NAILING A FALSEHOOD.

Let us speak frankly: this is to nail another falsehood uttered by the proponents of the new charter and the plotters of county division. It is the absurd allegation that the city of Oakland is not at present adequately and justly represented in the constitution of the board of supervisors, and the silly claim, based on that falsehood, that Oakland should now strive for "home rule" by dividing Alameda county and setting up the separate city and county of Oakland to be ruled by a council named after the old, discredited ward system.

Here are the facts regarding the existing supervisorial districts in Alameda county.

There are five districts, with one supervisor from each constituting the county board of supervisors.

District No. 5 is entirely in Oakland.
District No. 3 is mainly in Oakland and includes the city of Alameda. Of the voters in this district, 24,250 are registered in Oakland and 13,171 in Alameda—approximately twice as many in Oakland as in Alameda.

District No. 2 is mostly in Oakland, but includes San Leandro and Hayward, with intervening territory. Of the voters in this district, 26,714 are registered in Oakland and 5390 are registered in outside territory—approximately five times as many Oakland voters as there are in the outside territory.

District No. 4 is mainly in Berkeley, but includes Piedmont and a section of Oakland. Of the voters in this district, 30,915 are registered in Berkeley and 14,471 are registered in Oakland.

District No. 1 is beyond Hayward, the up-country district, and entirely outside of Oakland.

Therefore the City of Oakland holds all the votes in one district, two votes to one in another district, five votes to one in another district, one-third of the votes of another district and no votes in the remaining district.

In other words, Oakland holds the voting power to elect by overwhelming majorities three of the five county supervisors, and the possibility, with a good Oakland candidate contesting the seat, to elect four of the five supervisors.

That a Hayward man has been elected for one and an Alameda city man for another of the districts under control of Oakland voters is due solely to the voters. It is not to be charged to any fault of the supervisorial districting plan.

Oakland city is in an impregnable position to elect, at any time her voters may be disposed to do so, three of the five county supervisors and thus assume control of the county government. No districting plan could be devised to give Oakland greater advantage in the county government than the one now in force.

These are facts of the voting strength of the supervisorial districts which any citizen may verify at the county clerk's office by an inspection of the great register. They are in the form of documentary proof that the pleaders of the county division scheme have in another instance tried to deceive the voters by an utterly and consciously false statement of the facts.

TRIALS AHEAD.

Mr. Ford's offer to take over the hydroelectric power plant and so-called nitrate factory at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, is now before Congress and that body will determine whether it is to be accepted or rejected.

The project has a difficult road before it. In the agreement which Mr. Ford insisted he submitted to Congress there is a condition that the federal government loan Mr. Ford $50,000,000 for 100 years at a very low rate of interest. There is a disposition on the part of Congress not to invest any more large sums in the Muscle Shoals project, a disposition which the people generally will understand and sympathize with.

Mr. Ford has been prone to show impatience with Secretary of War Weeks over careful examination of the significance of his offer. His patience will be sorely tried by Congress. And it may even turn out that Congress is equal to completely exhausting his patience.

The Boston Transcript dolefully laments the fact that the returns of the census bureau show that of the women of the United States those of Massachusetts have the poorest chance of getting married. It says the news ought to be turned around and the men of other States informed that in Massachusetts is the best opportunity to obtain a good wife. But the compilers of the census bureau who interpret their statistics are obviously men. The women of Massachusetts have not been heard in this case; probably they will make the rejoinder that in their State women have the fairest chance to remain single.

THE GREAT EVICTION.

NOTES and COMMENT

The head of the Associated Women Students at the U. C., in urging codes to tell on each other, would subvert college ethics, maintained from time immemorial. The student at any school who would tell on his or her fellows would soon be "went to Coventry." In that classic, "Tom Brown's School Days" the subject is treated exhaustively. However desirable it may be to get the inwardness of rule infractions, it seems to be questionable whether getting it in that way is promotive of ultimate good to those concerned.

It illustrates Will Hays' energy and promptness in getting on his job that he has already proposed a model village for film production, though it may not be wholly without surprise that a detail of the plan is to make its government "Puritanic." If this can be done it will eliminate some of the wonder why he could command that spectacular salary.

Editors in their own ballistics are not always singled out as "prize citizens," but Harry Chandler of the Los Angeles Times has been. The singling out was not inadvertent, either, being emphasized by the presentation of a watch bearing an inscription to the effect that he was "the most useful citizen of Los Angeles in 1921." The really hard work was the bottom of it.

Senator Capper of the committee appointed to investigate the Washington theater catastrophe, has made a statement to the effect that the disaster was due to "bad engineering and cheap construction." Such work is sometimes done as cheaply as can be got past with; but there is a supervision to guard against just such disasters as happened in this instance. The brunt of the reckoning would justly be felt somewhere in the vicinity of such supervision.

The New York Herald begins a disquisition thus: "The subject of girls, which has engaged the attention of the human race on and off for several hundred thousand years, is discussed now with particular earnestness. Girls have a way of alarming their elders. What are they coming to?"

There is always something to modify the joy of living. The said joy on the Farallone Islands is marred, by the prevalence of jackrabbits. They eat the garden truck that the marooned residents attempt to raise. The person who introduced these pests to that environment must have been a fine joker. So far as can be usually seen it was strikingly unnecessary.

As Representative Julius Kahn is to have charge of the Congressional campaign it will be concluded at once that there will be activity in that direction. The administration is somewhat perturbed over the prospect of a reduced majority in the lower house, and the member who has a reputation for stirring around in campaigns, and withal who stands well with all classes of real Americans, is thus to be put in charge.

WHAT CAN I DO FOR MY COUNTRY.

What can I do for my country—I that have little of skill,

I that am one of the common run, with the humblest of places to fill?

Faith, I can bring up my children to love the old flag and be true, I can teach them to reverence the land of their birth, and that I will patiently do.

What can I do for my country—I that know nothing of fame,

I that must stand by the work of my hand, how can I honor her name?

Faith, I can talk of her splendor, I can rejoice through and through

That mine is a country of freedom, and that I will cheerfully do.

What can I do for my country—I that have little to give,

I that must share with a burden of care, how can I serve while I live?

Faith, I can honestly labor, loving the red, white and blue, and worthy the freedom she gives me, and that I will earnestly do.

What can I do for my country? Neither sailor nor soldier am I, mine is to wait when the dangers are great while the younger men march out to die.

Faith, I can cherish her teachings and be deaf to the alien crew Who would poison the love that I bear her, and that to the end I will do.

MAKING CONFIDENCE PART OF THE BUYERS STATE OF MIND.

If the price is right, and the prospect needs the goods, and everything else seems propitious for a sale, it may still be impossible to negotiate an order, for the most important element of all—confidence—may be lacking.

This is one of the greatest of all difficulties while exaggerated fluctuations in prices continue.

An implement salesman was in the store of one of his company's dealers. A local farmer happened to be in the store also and the salesman said to him:

"Don't you need a plow?"

"Yes," the farmer replied, "I do need a plow, but—" he stated with conviction—"I'm not going to buy one now, not till the prices drop!"

"I'd like to make you a good proposition on a plow," said the salesman. "Do you see that one standing over there? I'll sell it to you for $45. It's a bargain."

"No," said the farmer, "that's too much money."

"All right!" the salesman replied. "I take back the offer. I just wanted to see what you'd say. The price of that plow as it stands is $85."

Establishing the confidence that makes sales possible when an article like this is general in the buying public is an important advertising problem, as well as one of the problems of the individual salesman.—Printers' Ink Monthly.

about YOUR HEALTH

More Pleurisy Facts You Should Know and Ponder.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D.
Commissioner of Health
New York City.

Yesterday I told you about the pleural membrane, how it lines the chest wall and furnishes the covering to the lungs. In health this membrane is smooth and slippery. In disease it is rough and granular, almost like sandpaper. The latter condition indicates what is called "pleurisy."

When you have an attack of pleurisy, every time you take a deep breath there is an almost unbearable cutting pain in the chest. This is usually described as a "stitch in the side."

Perfectly healthy persons are unlikely to have pleurisy. What I mean by this is that there is usually some underlying disturbance like tuberculosis, for instance. The universality of tubercular infection is almost unbelievable. Most of us have at one time or another some evidence of tuberculosis. Pleurisy is one of these symptoms.

I am not telling you this to alarm you, but for the purpose of putting you on your guard. In its beginning, tuberculosis may be said to be 100 per cent curable. Tuberculosis is dangerous only when it is neglected.

If the pleuritic attack is really tubercular in origin, that particular cause should have no other effect than merely to give it exceptionally careful treatment, and, after recovery, to cause you to lead the sort of life which will ensure your health and physical prosperity.

Three eminent medical workers followed up their pleurisy cases, keeping their patients under observation for many years. Here are the results:

In group one, out of ninety cases of acute pleurisy, thirty-two ultimately developed tuberculosis of the lungs. In group two, out of one hundred and thirty cases of exudative pleurisy, fifty had tuberculosis within seven years. In group three, out of eighty-eight cases, thirty became tubercular.

While all these cases of pleurisy may have had tuberculosis as an underlying cause, it appears to be proved that about 30 per cent of the patients—probably because of their neglect to care for themselves—developed serious tuberculosis of the lungs.

Other cases of pleurisy may be traced to the germ of pneumonia. Such attacks are secondary usually to trouble in the lung. The pneumonia is not fatal, but yet it is severe enough to result in pleurisy.

When there is a pus infection in some distant part of the body the germs may be carried to the pleural cavity, and produce trouble there. I know of a recent case where a man had several teeth badly abscessed at the roots. When they were extracted the germs seemed to find their way into the tissues, and ultimately migrated to the chest, resulting in a tedious attack of pleurisy.

Pus in the pleural sac may be a sign of scarlet fever, influenza and other infectious fevers.

No matter what the cause, careful treatment will lead to complete recovery.

REDISTRICTING OF COUNTY WILL BE DISCUSSED

RICHMOND, Feb. 2.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Richmond County Board tonight joint committees will be named for the redistricting of supervisorial districts and for conference with County Assessor George G. Meese. President H. A. Johnson of the Richmond Board will confer with George Wall, president of the Richmond Industrial Commission and settle on the two committees which will meet Monday noon at Martin's Grill and arrange a drive to go over the assessment rolls with County Assessor Meese.

Both Richmond organizations are anxious to secure for Richmond its proportionate representation on the board of supervisors at Marquette. Although the assessed valuation of Richmond property constitutes 40 per cent of the county's valuation, Richmond has but one supervisor. Through redistricting the county, it is hoped to set two supervisors for this city.

College Avenue Speeders Cause Protest to City

COMPLAINT against high school students speeding on College avenue was made to Commissioner Frank Colburn today by merchants of the Claremont district, who assert that the habits of these students are "sure to result in somebody being killed sooner or later."

The Claremont merchants suggest that a policeman watch this district during school hours.

"The Emerson school is in our vicinity," they say. "This means that our streets are full of small children daily. The older students, at high school, pass in their automobiles, sometimes at terrific speed. All indications point toward a future catastrophe."

The officer told the court that Anderson disturbed the sleeping ducks when he drove his automobile about 45 miles an hour on Lakeshore avenue at 11:30 in the evening.

OIL HEATERS ARE NEEDED IN WOODYARD

Wood Gone, Stoves Must Be Had, Says Goodrich; 85 Ministers to Appeal to Congregations to Aid Helpless

There is need for coal oil heaters at the Municipal Woodyard.

This was made known today by W. S. Goodrich, superintendent of the institution. He has used all the wood we had stored at the yard," said Goodrich, "and have no way to keep the unemployed warm. There must be plenty of discarded coal oil heaters in the homes of the workers in Oakland. If they will call us we can collect them and repair them."

"Since the wood supply has been exhausted hundreds of women and children are near freezing because of no fuel. We can buy the coal from our fund, but we must have the heaters."

MINISTERS ACT

Following a personal investigation of conditions in Oakland, the Ministers' Union has decided to take steps to help.

Next Sunday 85 ministers will appeal to their parishioners for aid. A portion of the Sunday sermon in these churches will be devoted to the unemployeds among the unemployed. Special collections for destitute families will be taken up and requests made for clothing.

Both contributions and clothing will be turned over to the citizens' emergency employment and relief committee for distribution.

In addition to the forthcoming appeal the First Methodist church has sent circulars to the parishioners asking for aid.

The call of the First Methodist church is primarily for work for the unemployed with the suggestion that they be paid each night.

The action of the ministers follows a survey by Rev. Harry Pressfield and Rev. Henry Schenowsky made at the behest of the union.

Challenge for Figures Still Dodged by Charter League

Twenty-one days have elapsed since the presentation by the Alameda County Anti-Division League, of figures carefully compiled by experts, and checked by William Dolge & Co., certified public accountants, showing that county division would result in a minimum tax rate of $5.43 on the $100, as against the present rate $4.91, an increase of 52 cents. If eleventh-hour criticism is sound, why not accept the challenge?

These figures show the taxpayers of Oakland receive $450,000 more each year than they pay into the county treasury. For instance:

In behalf of orphans and half orphans, the city of Oakland receives $57,400 per year in benefits more than it contributes in taxes. In assistance to indigents in their homes, the city receives $22,300 more than it pays.

Through use of tubercular sanitarium and infirmary, actual use, the Oakland benefit is $45,000 more than it pays. In school apportionment there is another large gain.

Likewise, through use of the receiving hospital, care of feeble-minded, county jail, detention home and Associated Charities, the saving to Oakland, because of the excess of benefits over taxes paid, is $14,350.

The statement also shows that Oakland, as a city and county, would have to maintain all of its present city functions and bear the whole burden of county expense.

According to a provision of the state law practically all of the county officers must be retained. The provisions of the charter open the door to unlimited expenditure through creation of new offices, departments and boards, and the employment of innumerable experts, deputies and clerks with salaries to be fixed by the manager or metropolitan council.

The Charter League has presented a statement from expert accountants saying they have checked over the figures of the Taxpayers' Association and that on them a certain saving "should be" made.

The Anti-Division League twenty-one days ago, made this proposition:

That the expert accountant of the Charter League go over the figures with the expert accountants of the Alameda County Anti-Division League, William Dolge & Co., and, if there is a conflict of opinion, the two select a third certified public accountant and that the agreement reached by the three experts be presented to the voters of Oakland in order that they may know what county division and the new charter scheme will cost the taxpayers.

If the Charter League is certain of its figures, why does it refuse this very fair proposition?

Daughters of Israel Hold Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Daughters of Israel Relief Society was held yesterday afternoon. An address on the subject of social service was delivered by Dr. Rudolph I. Coffey. The musical numbers for the occasion were supplied by Mrs. Cora Ruiz and Mr. and Mrs. John Wherry Lewis.

Mrs. Morris Falk was re-elected president of the society and Mrs. A. Jacobs, first vice-president; Mrs. S. Cabon, second vice-president; Mrs. Eli Schwarzbau, secretary, and Mrs. Herman Newman, treasurer.

The office of the organization is at 326 Albany building, under the charge of Samuel Ginsberg, superintendent, and Mrs. Sadie Ring, social worker.

Widening of Moraga Road Is Requested

PIEDMONT, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Nellie Maxwell Osborne made a request of the city council last night for the widening of the Moraga Road for a distance of 200 or more feet at the boundary line of Oakland and the city of Piedmont. She stated that this stretch of road is dangerous, owing to the steep grade and the fact that the hillside just out at sharp angles, cutting off the view ahead. Heavy traffic on this road leaves little room for the average car, and no room at all for hikers, Mrs. Osborne pointed out.

"The road should be made beautiful and not allowed to be a menace to the people traveling on it," said Mrs. Osborne. "If the city of Piedmont will make a substantial bulkhead to hold the earth from going into the creek I will give a sufficient amount of land facing on the narrow part of the road to widen it at least 10 feet."

The council agreed to send a representative to look over the ground with the possibility in view of complying with Mrs. Osborne's request.

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work—Advertment.

CLUBMAN IS ACCUSED BY DRY SLEUTH

Robert E. Jacks, of S. F., Held On Charge of Assault. After Arrest at Pismo Beach On Boogie Violation Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—Robert E. Jacks, clubman and scion of the well-known millionaire family in that name, which controls extensive landed and cattle interests throughout San Luis Obispo county, was arrested last night at Pismo Beach and charged with having assaulted a federal prohibition officer in the carrying out of his duty.

According to Federal Officer Robert McKenzie, Jacks and John Hayden, who also was arrested, and two women companions were being served with intoxicating liquors at the El Mar hotel, at Pismo Beach. McKenzie states that Jacks told him that he would not allow any federal officer to interfere with his party.

McKenzie says that Jacks followed his threats by trying to assault him, and that thereupon he was compelled to knock Jacks down as a matter of self-defense.

John Piesas, owner of the El Mar hotel, also was arrested. One of the women companions of Jacks refused to give her name, but the other woman said her name was Jewel Wardsworth.

Alleged Auto Thief Caught in Berkeley

BERKELEY, Feb. 2.—After a chase of more than a mile by Park Superintendent Carl Eidenbach and Vernon Peck, a Berkeley merchant, Clifford Gard, 15 years old, was arrested last night in an automobile belonging to Joseph Pfizer, 2612 Russell street.

This morning at the police station Gard, who lives at 5815 Ayala ave., Oakland, is said to have confessed to have taken the car. He was seen getting into the automobile by Eidenbach and Peck, who gave chase in another machine. At Derby and Alvin streets Gard picked up two other boys, turned the wheel over to one of them and then leaped and ran in the opposite direction. Peck gave chase to the fleeing youth and the park superintendent followed the automobile, capturing the youths a short distance away. Gard's companions were released, but Gard will be prosecuted, the police say, having been in trouble before.

MISS DE GUERRE ELOPES TO WED PARKER STEWARD

Popular Society Girl and Gifted Pianiste Surprises
Her Friends.

Miss Marion de Guerre, one of the most popular society girls about the bay and pianiste of distinction, is today Mrs. Parker Steward.

The marriage took place on Monday—other details are lacking—Mrs. Ida de Guerre, mother of the bride, assuring her friends that, inasmuch as her daughter is away, she herself cannot discuss the marriage. It is clear, however, that the family was not in attendance at the service.

The story of the elopement leaked out at the meeting yesterday of the San Francisco Musical Society, of which Miss de Guerre—or Mrs. Steward—is a member of the board of directors.

For the first time in months, she was absent.

Inquiries set on foot brought out the romance, of which the closest friends of the clever girl had for some months been aware, and the sudden—and wholly unannounced—marriage.

Two weeks ago the bride gave what was pronounced by the critics one of the finest programs presented by the musical club this year, winning the plaudits, among others, of a good-looking, upstanding stranger—he was the groom of Monday.

Mrs. Steward is a graduate of one of the smart private schools in San Francisco, centering her work then as later upon music—one of the growing number of society girls with a serious purpose. She had already won a distinct place as a pianiste.

She is the niece of Miss Etta Warren, friend of the late Bertha Dolber, from whom she inherited several millions, whose home down the peninsula is one of the show-places of the countryside.

GERMANS TRYING TO COAX PLANTS FROM AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Apparent attempts to arrange for the bodily transfer of various American industries to Germany were disclosed today in correspondence between Secretary Davis, of the Labor department, and E. M. Waring, of the American Electric Cutting company, of New York.

Secretary Davis condemned the endeavor as a "despicable and pernicious activity," and compelled Waring on patriotic refusal to participate.

A letter from the Inter-Oceanic Holding Company, located in the Equitable Trust building, New York City, sent to Secretary Davis by Waring as an example of the propaganda, called attention to the advantages that would accrue to American producers who transferred some of their manufacturing to central Europe because of the labor conditions prevailing there.

The writer suggested that he be authorized to quote figures to show comparative costs of producing in Germany and in the United States the commodity handled by Waring's firm.

The letterhead, Waring said, bore the inscription: "Department of propaganda and statistics," but an effort had been made to ink this out.

Man Sells Gifts to Pay Debts, Wife Says

After her husband, John Larkin Shell, a former army captain, had sold her wedding gifts to pay some of his debts, Mrs. Shell had to pay his remaining debts out of her own funds, she told Superior Judge James G. Quinn. She was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce, and custody of a nine-year-old daughter.

Mrs. Shell said her husband had been discharged from the army a month before she knew of it, and that since she discovered the fact by accident he refused to tell her the reason for it.

The Shells were married in Portland in 1908, and separated in 1929.

Men Uninjured As Car Turns Over

Two men, who were in an automobile when it overturned after running into the street curb at Thirtieth and Fallon streets, escaped with slight injuries.

George K. Miller, of 2179 Telegraph avenue, was driving the automobile and was not hurt, although following the accident, W. Plente, who resides at 1505 Telegraph avenue, was thrown clear of the wreckage. The men were taken to the Emergency hospital and treated for cuts and bruises.

SAN LEANDRO TO STAGE BENEFIT TO ASSIST IDLE

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 3.—While there has been a noticeable improvement in the unemployment situation of San Leandro, the matter is still one of serious consideration to the city. Local Red Cross workers have done much to aid the needy ones, but two recent entertainments given by them to raise funds for the unemployed failed to net enough money to accomplish their purpose.

According to Mrs. L. F. Mason, chairman of the Red Cross of San Leandro, plans for a third benefit have been discussed, and a ball game has been agreed on.

William Wagner, manager of the Best Tractor's team, has agreed to donate the services of his players as soon as a present series of games is played.

W. F. Gannon, chairman of the chamber of commerce, was recently appealed to by Mrs. Mason for aid in the present situation. Gannon replied that it was a matter that could hardly be taken up by the chamber of commerce as a body, as the only possible aid to be offered would be cash donations or work given to the men, and that the one way to achieve results would be to approach the members as individuals.

Last Bank Bandit Suspect Captured

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The last member of the gang of automobile bandits who held up the Yokohama Specie Bank here March 19, 1918, was captured today in New York, according to advices to the police. He is Manuel Schenone, alias Götting. Together with Miles A. Bennett and Thomas Fraser, Schenone is alleged to have entered the bank, imprisoned the employees in the vault and stolen more than $10,000. Bennett and Fraser already have been sentenced.

S. P. and U. S. Must Litigate or Else Split Dime

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—More business for the supreme court.

The government and the Southern Pacific are at odds over ownership of a dime.

The dime was sent to the railroad company by an unnamed man who said he slipped through the gates at the Ferry building about midnight the night the railroads were returned by the government to private ownership. His conscience hurt.

If it was before midnight, the dime belongs to the government. Otherwise it's the Southern Pacific's money.

So it offers a fine chance to litigate.

BANDITS ROB CROCKER.

Efforts to Safeguard Children Stressed at Convention in Hotel Oakland.

How warfare is being waged in this state against the white plague, particularly to protect children, was outlined today at the opening session of the fourth annual convention of the California Tuberculosis Association at Hotel Oakland.

Nutrition classes, children's medical, health and dental clinics, prevention of home and summer camps provided the topics for the first day's program. Health experts from all parts of California, including physicians, nurses and social workers, will conclude the convention tomorrow with an inspection and program at Arroyo Sanitarium, near Livermore.

A symposium on nutrition will be held in the morning at Hotel Oakland, beginning at 9:30 o'clock. Speakers will be Dr. Harold K. Faber, Stanford University, who will discuss "Weight and Height in Relation to Health"; Dr. Philip King Brown, San Francisco; Dr. Gertrude Whitcomb, Oakland; Dr. Adelaide Brown, San Francisco; Dr. C. C. Browning, Los Angeles, will lead the round table.

Purchase of a 45-acre tract near Livermore for use as a prevention camp is contemplated by Alameda County Association, according to reports today.

During the year 19,000 public school children have been weighed and measured and 100,000 bottles of milk distributed to under-nourished students in the county.

The average nursing list to Arroyo Sanitarium during the past four months has been 43 children and 8 adults.

A survey shows that only among the girls in part time classes is tuberculosis increasing in Oakland.

One in five students in San Francisco schools is unable to resist the ravages of tuberculosis, speakers declared.

A survey covering 44,500 students in San Francisco reported one-third under weight; 40 per cent suffering from chronic fatigue; 87 per cent from defective teeth.

Ninety-nine children will be installed in all schools before the close of the semester, officers reported. At present 39 are operating.

Need for dental clinics was stressed by the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Society through Miss Sidney Maguire. Reports were made from associations from all parts of the state.

Speakers this afternoon were: Miss Elsie Knapp, San Francisco; Dr. H. A. Peterson, San Francisco; Dr. H. E. Kirschner, Monrovia; Dr. Charles M. Richards, San Jose; Dr. Potter, Dr. Langley Porter, Dr. E. J. Hoeser, Dr. M. P. Burnham, Dr. Philip Brown, Dr. W. C. Voor-sanger, San Francisco; Dr. Chesley Bush, Livermore; Dr. Edward von Adelung, Oakland.

PUPILS SELL SEALS.

MARTINEZ, Feb. 3.—Approximately $400 was realized from the sale of Christmas seals by school children of the county during the Christmas season, according to a check of returns made today by Miss Tachina Miller, county school nurse.

Three-fourths of the fund is to be utilized in carrying on anti-tuberculosis work among Contra Costa school children. This is to be done largely through provision of milk.

WOMAN HURT IN CRASH.

Mrs. Hazel Callahan, 27 years, was treated at the Emergency Hospital for cuts and bruises which she received when her automobile collided with another machine driven by M. E. Steade. The accident occurred at Ninth and Broadway. She was later removed to her home at 2824 Summit avenue.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY NOT WANTED BY DANCE HALL MEN

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Dance hall managers here do not want high school students as customers, because their morals are so low they have a bad effect upon the regular habitués of such places, Miss Jennie Blinford, investigator for the Juvenile Protective Association, said in an address before the Chicago Women's Club.

"I won't say it's true that their morals are that low," said Miss Blinford, "but that's what the managers think. They told me so when I suggested having high school students attend a series of demonstrations of correct dances."

When his enjoyment of the situation began to pall Trause arose and, taking the bottle said, "The power of imagination is demonstrated. This contains nothing but water."

So saying, he drank the contents of the bottle while students who had been most distressed now wore the deepest dyed blushes as they realized they were the victims of the instructor's humor.

TEACHER TURNS JOKE ON PUPILS AT CENTERVILLE

Psychology and Power of Suggestion Applied With a Salutory Effect.

CENTERVILLE, Feb. 3.—"The worm turns." "He who laughs last laughs best."

These are only two of many pertinent axioms going the rounds of the chemistry class of the Washington Union High school as the result of a practical joke played upon the members by A. S. Trause, instructor, in a quick natural roast for numerous pranks played by some of his students upon him.

The professor, who is noted for his good humor and ability to take a joke, declared some of his students were in need of a lesson. So he applied psychology and knowledge of the power of suggestion.

He informed the class that he was to demonstrate the power of imagination. So saying, he showed them a small bottle, tightly corked.

"This bottle," said the instructor in his most solemn and instructive tone, "contains spirits of ammonia, which has a most potent and irritating odor, as you know."

The class knew, for it is a common prank of high school chemistry students to let loose the ammonia fumes in class rooms to the demoralization of pupils and teachers who are present.

"I will open this bottle, and we will determine which student ceases to breathe ammonia fumes first," continued the professor. The cork was pulled out of the bottle and the teacher and his students waited developments.

Immediately the students gave signs of mental distress. Handkerchiefs were brought into use. Eyes began smarting.

One young feminine member of the class, gasping for air, pleaded to be taken from the class as she felt she was being overcome.

When his enjoyment of the situation began to pall Trause arose and, taking the bottle said, "The power of imagination is demonstrated. This contains nothing but water."

So saying, he drank the contents of the bottle while students who had been most distressed now wore the deepest dyed blushes as they realized they were the victims of the instructor's humor.

NINE ARE NETTED IN S. J. DRY RAID; WOMAN JAILED

Three-Time Offenders Taken in Bootleg Roundup by Federal Squad.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 3.—In a new series of raids under the Volstead act here late yesterday nine men and a woman were taken into custody and today are before the federal court in San Francisco. They were arrested by federal and local police officers, who worked in unison in the sweeping raids on alleged bootlegging joints.

Several of those nabbed were listed on the police blotter as prohibition violators for the third time.

All of the arrested parties were released on $500 bail, which each was able to place with Chief of Police J. N. Black.

Federal Prohibition Agents Vaughn, Rinkie, Jordan and De Spain arrived in this city late yesterday and secured the co-operation of Detective Charles Hestell and Officers Lloyd Buttington, Edward Stough, Louis Roggie and James A. Murphy, who thereafter aided them in their work.

Principal interest surrounded the arrest of William Fink, proprietor of a supposed soft drink establishment at 65 Post street. It was Fink's first arrest and he strenuously denied the charge against him.

Hereinbefore Fink, known as Billy Fenley, has acted as bail bond broker for other accused men charged with violation of the dry law. William Carson, his partner, was also arrested at the Post street place.

Mrs. Evelyn Dunn, 337 Royal avenue, was taken into custody by the officers after it is said evidence had been secured to the effect that she had been selling liquor to girls.

Others caught in the net of the dry officers included Lewis Orlando, Third and San Fernando streets; Frank Skello and Gordon Jones, St. Charles hotel, North Market street; Bert Haley, Newland hotel, North Market street; Thomas Grimes, 331 South First street; James Bounes, 32 South Second street, and C. H. Bennett, 234 South First street.

WOMAN CARRIED INTO COURT FOR ALIMONY PLEA

Collapses and Husband Promises to Provide Funds for Sustenance.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Carried into court on a stretcher to plead in person for temporary alimony, Mrs. Bessie Chance, who formerly resided at 3639 Patterson avenue, Oakland, collapsed today and had to be hurried home in an ambulance, having been summoned from the Central Emergency hospital.

Mrs. Chance, who now lives at 419 Hill street here, is being sued for divorce by Charles T. Chance, wealthy manufacturer of dental supplies, on a charge of desertion. In an answer and cross-complaint, his wife alleges that he deserted her and also accuses him of cruelty.

A week ago he was said to show concern why he should not pay Mrs. Chance alimony and appeared and expressed his willingness to make a $25,000 property settlement. Judge Graham continued the matter until today in order that the wife might be on hand. During the proceedings Mrs. Chance fainted and her condition was such that the case was hastily disposed of, Chance agreeing to pay $50 monthly.

Originally Mrs. Chance brought suit in 1905, obtaining an interlocutory decree. The records were destroyed in the fire of 1906 and the final was never obtained. The couple later became reconciled, but separated again in 1908. Mrs. Chance claims she never saw her spouse again until last year. In the meantime she, believing she had been finally divorced, had married again.

Labor Leader Must Pay $90 Alimony

William A. Spooner, secretary of the Alameda County Central Labor Council, was today ordered by Superior Judge Harris to pay his wife, Ellen F. Spooner, $90 a month pending settlement of her suit against him for $125 a month separate maintenance.

Mrs. Spooner refused to speak to her husband when they met in the courtroom. When she was called to the witness stand, Spooner, who was just leaving it, held the gate in the courtroom rail open for her to pass through. She stopped, and refused to go through the gate until he retracted it.

Spooner testified that he receives $80 a week from the Central Labor Council, and that some time ago he received about $400 for articles in various labor magazines.

Man Asks for Quick Sentence, Gets It

Antone Henderson, who begged Superior Judge Church two days ago to send him to prison without delay, got his wish today. In the form of one to fourteen years' sentence in San Quentin, Henderson, who had served several terms in the penitentiary, confessed having stolen tools from buildings under construction in the Lakeshore district. "I'm an old-timer in the pen," Judge "Big" said. "It's no use for me to try to keep out of it." He thanked Judge Church today upon receiving his sentence.

BOY IS MISSING.

Captain of Inspectors Richard McSorley today received a telephone call from Mrs. Louis Redden, 1220 W. Thirty-first street, Los Angeles, asking him to locate her son Arthur, 13 years old. The boy left home Sunday.

MISS NELLIE COLLINS.

"I have been thankful a thousand times that I took Tanlac when I did. It is simply wonderful the way it has benefited me," said Miss Nellie Collins, 1320 Connecticut ave., Bridgeport, Conn.

About eighteen months ago my appetite began to fail and I seemed to be going into a decline. Nothing agreed with me and my nerves were keyed up to such a high pitch I was actually afraid they would snap in two.

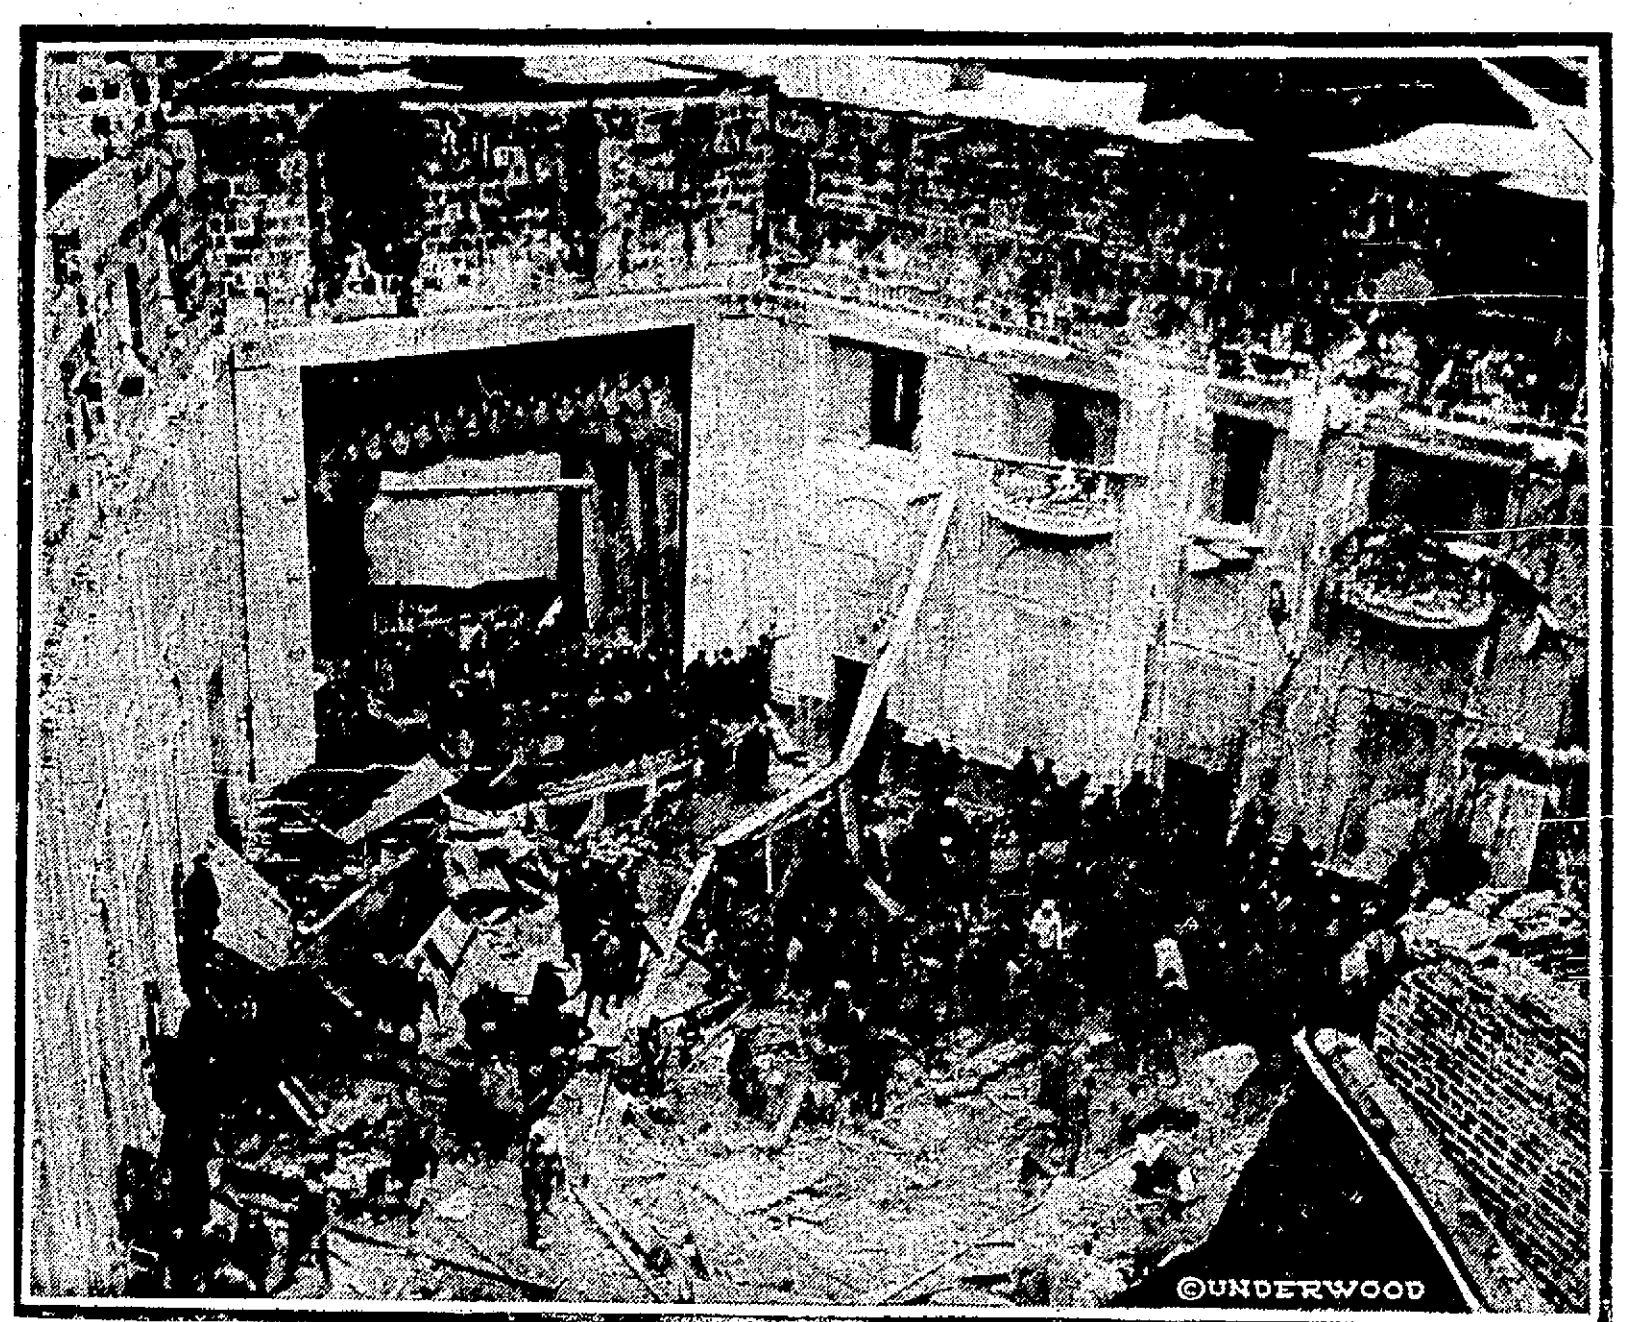

"But Tanlac has brought about a wonderful change in my condition. My appetite is almost ravenous, my digestion is perfect and I feel as well as I ever did in my life. I never dreamed there was a grand medicine as Tanlac in the world."

NOTE:—The International Proprietary Co., distributors of Tanlac, have offices in their offices at Atlantic, Georgia, over fifty thousand signed statements from representative men and women from every State in the Union and every Province in Canada. Many of these are from prominent people in this city and section and have been previously published in this paper.

Tanlac is sold in Oakland by The Oak Drug Company and leading drugists everywhere.—Advertisement.

First Picture of Tragic Crash in Capital Theater

C., when the roof, weighed down by thirty inches of snow, collapsed, burying several hundred under a mass of entangled struts, supports and beams. The death list totaled 98. The number of severely injured was more than a hundred. An equal number are believed to have been hurt in minor ways. Soldiers and firemen can be seen searching the debris for dead.

GIRL ATTACKED BY SOLDIER IN S.F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The timely passing of an automobile early today was all that saved Miss Elizabeth Clark, 25 years old, of 120 Randolph street, from the attack of a uniformed soldier, who accosted her near the Presidio reservation at midnight. Miss Clark was on her way home when she was suddenly seized by the soldier as she was passing Chestnut and Scott streets. He threw her down, but she screamed and he was scared off by the approaching car. Her scalp was lacerated and she was in a dazed state when she made her way to a municipal street car. It chanced that the conductor, Robert E. Rasmussen, of 1344 Polk street, knew her and he insisted that she go to his home. When he was relieved from duty at 2 a. m., he conveyed her to the Central Emergency hospital, where her injuries were dressed.

GLEE CLUB TRIP IS NOT APPROVED

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—The proposed Oriental trip of the University Glee Club struck a snag last night after consideration by the executive committee of the student body. Because the financial budget submitted by the club manager did not meet with the approval of the committee, the trip was withheld.

When the songsters sailed for the Orient two years ago, they borrowed money from local banks to finance the trip, and this year they planned to "make their way" as the trip progressed. Until definite assurance of the success of the trip can be given to the student executives, the plans of the club members must be abandoned, according to the decision made.

Wife's Secret Home Wins Man Divorce

Testimony that his wife, Florence, had secretly rented an apartment of her own at 521 Twenty-second street and repeatedly entertained a man, friend in it, won an interlocutory divorce decree today for Charles A. Fischer of 628 Twentieth street. Fischer said he had discovered his wife's secret retreat, and that he and his brother had several times watched her and her friend enter it together. The brother corroborated the testimony. Fischer, who gave his name as 521 Twenty-second street, said he was married in San Francisco two years ago, when his wife was 20. They separated December 31, last.

What's Happen in the Motor World

Over five hundred dealers, salesmen and automotive men are expected to attend the general meeting of the Alameda County Automobile Trade Association in the roof garden of the Pacific building tonight.

Robert W. Martland, secretary-manager, and D. S. Jones, president, have arranged an interesting program for the motor car experts and some well known men in the industry will address the audience.

L. H. Bennett, "Business Doctor" of the California Automobile Trade Association, will be there with his new firm, "Ask 'Em to Buy," which has made a hit all over the country.

H. J. Banta of Weststock-Nichols Co. is making a special trip from Los Angeles to discuss the business situation and tell the automobile men what they can expect during the next year.

Minor Chipman, industrial engineer, will tell the men how to plug business leads.

M. L. Drum, character analyst, will advise the men how to size up prospects by their physical characteristics.

Rob Martland, manager of the association, will relate the results of the auto show and discuss business conditions.

It is expected to be one of the biggest automotive meetings ever held in the west.

LINCOLN SALE TOMORROW

Increased activities at the Lincoln factories in Detroit are expected immediately after tomorrow, the date which the court has set to consummate plans for the transfer of the Ford plant to the Lincoln company, which will have the supervision of the plant after it is delivered perhaps after its completion. The Detroit Trust Co. has made it possible for the new organization to get under way without serious delay.

To date, no bids are known to be in prospect besides the $5,000,000 offer of the Ford interests, made in association with the Lincolns, who founded the Lincoln company, and who, in the event this bid is accepted, will continue in the active management of the new organization.

It is said that there have been a number of Leland-built cars in the Ford plant garage for some years past, and in view of the fact that the Lincolns are said to have held Leland practices and ideas, it could hardly be expected, officials of the Lincoln car Co. say, that they would place orders for new cars otherwise than endorse the preservation of the standards upon which the Lincoln car is founded. Both Ford and Leland have gone on record that it will be their purpose to maintain the Leland standards.

It has also been stated by the same men that there will be no disposition to force production beyond the dictates of sound judgment. It is expected, however, that new conditions will be passed along to purchasers in the way of more attractive prices.

Among the other advantages which are expected to be derived from the contemplated Leland-Ford affiliation, it is seen that the new Lincoln company will be assured of abundant funds to meet the needs of legitimate and judicious expansion.

Auctioneer Role Judged by Jurist

Superior Judge Harris refused to act as auctioneer today, cost the First Methodist church of Alameda $100. During the hearing of a petition of the board of directors of the church to sell the church building at Park street and Central avenue, a bid to H. M. Bradley and B. C. Emonds for $4000, a man among the spectators in the court room rose from his seat and offered $5000 for the property.

"I refuse to act as an auctioneer," said Judge Harris. "That is, since it means only a hundred dollar difference. Sold for $4000."

SOLDIER BONUS BILL TO BE PUT THROUGH SOON

Tax on Beer Is Rejected As One Means of Raising Money Required.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Soldiers' bonus legislation now under consideration by the house ways and means committee will carry a provision for raising the necessary revenue to finance it, Chairman Fordney announced today after a conference with President Harding. Whether the money will be obtained by internal taxes, or the use of the proceeds from the refunded foreign debt, or both, remains to be determined. Fordney said 50 per cent.

Fordney expects the bill to be ready for the house within two weeks, and he thinks only a few days will be required for its passage.

COST NOT ESTIMATED

Senate Republicans in party conference already have voted to press the bonus legislation. Because of the uncertainty as to the number of former service men who will take the cash feature the house committee is having difficulty in determining just what the cost will be for the first two years. Some estimates of the bonus are as high as $100 per man.

Arguments for and against the tax on beer as a means of raising funds for the bonus were heard today by the committee, and at their conclusion members indicated very clearly that such a tax was not to be considered.

OPPOSE LIQUOR SALES

Representative Green of Iowa, the ranking Republican, declared that, aside from the constitutional question involved, the arguments against legalizing the sale of beer was so compelling that the proposition could not be entertained. Representative Garner of Texas, the ranking Democrat, said he was not in favor of the proposition. Arguments for the 2.75 beer was made by Levy Cook, a Washington attorney, who said he spoke for the public.

Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, opposed the suggestion.

Water Power Act Given First Place

MODESTO, Feb. 3.—Interest in water and power act will overshadow the interest in candidates at the next election. Senator L. J. Dennett, champion of the act, declared at a meeting of the Progressive Business Club here.

Dennett said the state must develop its hydro-electric power and insure cheap electric energy if it is to compete with eastern states that have coal. He quoted power men as stating that electric power will be dearer in California than it is now.

The senator explained that under the proposed act, the state would merely insure political subdivisions who wished to borrow money at the low rate allowed the state in order to develop power. The act would authorize a bond issue of $500,000, he said, but the bonds only would be sold after the state had bound the subdivisions to repay the amount with interest at the expiration of 25 years.

Genoa Agenda Too Vague for Poincare

PARIS, Feb. 3.—(By the Associated Press).—The note prepared by Premier Poincare defining the conditions under which, from the French viewpoint, the international economic conference at Genoa should be declared the inclusion of Soviet Russia, may be fraught with considerable danger unless the Allies agree in advance on a common attitude toward the soviet delegates.

Poincare considers the agenda for the conference, as arranged by the supreme council at Cannes, too vague. It must be made clear, he says, that article two, labeled "Establishment of European peace," should be binding and not a mere way affect existing treaties, for example, shall not serve as the pretext for reopening the Silesian or reparations questions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Disregarding his own safety, Morris Wommer, aged night clerk at the Hotel Carlton, 377 Sixth street, plunged into the midst of a fire early today and saved the life of a guest whose bed was burning. Wommer was painfully burned in the rescue, as was the victim, Alexander Forsyth, 40 years old, who had retired at a late hour and reclined smoking and reading a newspaper. He awoke to find his couch enveloped in flames and cried for help. Wommer beat out the fire, suffering burns of hands and fingers. Wommer was burned severely on the back, face, chest, neck, arms and hands. Both men were treated at the Central Emergency hospital.

Abandoned Wife Would Scratch Out Rival's Eyes

MRS. BERTHA SOLENZO, who said her husband prompted her husband to throw rocks at her in San Jose.

GERMAN RAIL STRIKE IS FAST BLOCKING LINES

Passenger and Freight Traffic Is Tied Up in North; Planes Carrying the Mail.

BERLIN, Feb. 3.—(By the Associated Press).—Germany's railway strike, which has almost completely tied up all kinds of traffic since Wednesday midnight, became even more complete today when the Berlin branch of the railway union joined the ranks of the strikers. It was estimated that 17,900 engine drivers are out.

Passenger and freight traffic in North Germany was at a standstill. Undelivered mail has begun to accumulate and postal authorities are maintaining aerial service for urgent mail and passenger purposes.

Efforts to maintain the milk and food supplies for Berlin have failed, and the newspapers have reduced their size and number of editions.

The government's manifesto declaring the strike illegal has aggravated the situation.

Man Ordered to Pay $900 Due in Alimony

Charges of failure to provide for a divorce decree for Mrs. Ethel Smith against Herman A. Smith three years ago, were reiterated today when Mrs. Smith told Superior Judge Harris that her ex-husband was $900 behind in his alimony payments. Judge Harris immediately ordered that Smith should send his former wife $100 a month, instead of the $30 originally required, until the deficit is made up.

Mrs. Smith said that her husband is capable of making $275 a month, but that he has such a roving disposition that he refuses to work long in one place. She won her divorce in 1918 on testimony that her father had to support her.

Honey Week Formally Proclaimed by Mayor

Mayor Davis today issued a public reminder that the week of February 7 will be "California Honey Week."

At the big American Legion gathering next week the Oakland beekeepers are planning to make honey one of the main features of the banquet menu.

The mayor's proclamation follows in part: "California honey is becoming more and more widely known throughout the country and it is to make our own people more familiar with the product and to increase home consumption that honey week has been set aside. This rapidly growing industry is one well worthy of support and glad endorsement the plan to make California honey week a success in our city."

Legality of S. F. Man's Marriage Questioned

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—The marriage of James Robert Ponce, a wealthy Englishman, to Maude Altes of Chicago, with whom he is now living at 990 Bush street, San Francisco, is endangered by the decision of Judge Charles McDonald, who reopened the case in which Ponce secured a divorce from his former wife last November.

He was married to Miss Altes December 13, 1921.

Affidavits presented by the attorneys of the former Mrs. Ponce alleged fraud had been practiced when the divorce was granted and that through a conspiracy Mrs. Ponce was kept in ignorance of the date of the hearing.

Alleged Diverting of Funds Deplored

Alleged diverting of funds meant for the improvement of Lakeside school is deplored in a resolution adopted by the North Heights and Lakeside Improvement Club. The money is said to have been used to swell the fund already appropriated for buying a site and erecting a school in East Oakland. The school was known as the Susan B. Anthony junior high school.

In its resolution the club authorized its executive committee to take the matter up with the school board, resulting in the resolution that the alleged diverting of funds is described in the resolution as "intolerable."

MY FAVORITE STORIES

by IRVIN S. COBB

Calling a Spade a Spade

When not engaged in reciting "Casey at the Bat" by request, De Wolf Hopper, in his lighter hours, delights in telling a certain yarn. It is his favorite story—incidentally it is a favorite of mine.

As Hopper tells it, a Christmas entertainment was being planned in a remote Nevada town. The affair was to take place at the church, and the local Sunday school superintendent, a mild and gentle man, with a temperamental Adam's apple and an aggravated habit of wearing white string ties on week days, had charge. Up until the eleventh hour it looked as though the manager of the show must depend exclusively upon home talent in making up the bill. But late in the afternoon of Christmas eve, a freight train, carrying a slender stranger dropped off a passing freight train, carrying a slender instrument case under his arm. He sought the superintendent, introduced himself—modestly—as a distinguished musician on tour and volunteered to take part in the night's program. Delighted at having enlisted a visiting star from out of the East, the superintendent assigned him the place of honor.

At the proper moment the pleased promoter in his role of master of ceremonies came forth upon the improvised stage and announced that he had a delightful surprise and a wonderful treat and all that sort of thing for the audience. "Prof. Billus, the famous clarinet player, direct from New York city and at present sojourning temporarily in their midst, would now favor the assembled citizens with a solo. He stepped to one side and from the wings issued the visitor, who bowed low in response to the applause and then lifting his instrument to his lips emitted one of the sourest and most dismal of notes.

In his shock of disappointment a big miner at the back of the house forgot the proprieties.

"Well, the blankety-blank!" he exclaimed in a voice which reached beyond the footlights.

Quivering with indignation the introducer sprang forward again to the center.

"Wait!" he called out. "Who called the clarinet player a blankety-blank?"

The miner was instantly ready with a counter shot.

"Who called the blankety-blank a clarinet player?" he shouted.

HORSES VERSUS AUTOMOBILE

Practically all the articles written in recent years on the horse versus the automobile have been written by mechanics. I cannot remember seeing a single article by a veterinarian. Now some of my best friends are veterinarians. I contend that a man who can treat epizootic is just as noble a creature as one who can fix a cracked cylinder. I do not recognize that glanders is lower in any scale than carbon, or that blind staggers is less significant than a short circuit. In fact, the symptoms are quite similar.

But since veterinarians seem to have no champion, I shall champion them. I have nothing much to do this morning, anyway, and it might just as well be veterinarians as something else.

I started somewhere. Where was it? Oh, yes, I started on a defense of the horse. Let me state the proposition in the form of a question. Why is a horse more to be desired than an automobile? (Keep quiet, please, I will answer it myself). There are many important reasons why a horse is more desirable than an automobile. In the first place, there is no comparison in the original cost of the upkeep. A horse doesn't need to be repainted or reupholstered. One set of hoofs is good for a lifetime. He will go farther on one ear of corn than any car can go on a pint of gasoline. He doesn't freeze up in the winter. He never stalls in the middle of the railroad track.

A horse is much more of an ideal proposition than a car for city traffic. He is not nearly so wide nor is his wheelbase so long. He can be turned around in a much smaller space than any automobile. He can be parked in less space along the curb. And he could be trained, if necessary, to observe the parking laws by moving himself at the expiration of each thirty minutes. The cost of repair is practically nil. Horses will not run into each other as automobiles do. A horse is an ideal family car. When you go out riding on your horse, you do not need to take the neighbors. There is no hospitable tonneau standing there like an open invitation for all the world to hop in and go along at your expense.

If horses eventually come to take the place of automobiles, as I sincerely hope they will—almost any horse looks better than any automobile, and has much better manners—every horse will probably carry his license number neatly tied to his tail. Horses will then be trained as the war horse was of old, who could scent the battle from afar, only this time it will be a cop, and being once assured that it is a motorcycle cop—or, rather, a Shetland pony cop—he will triumphantly tuck his license number between his legs and turn down the nearest alley.

Finally—I will continue this next week, if I feel so inclined.

MEN BEHIND RACE TRACK WILL NOT ALLOW GAMBLING

No Attempt to Modify Betting
Laws Will Be Made, Says
Spreckels.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—If a plan to have thoroughbred horses race at Tanforan park is successful those behind the project will have accomplished their objective; they will bar gambling and have no intention of considering any modification of existing laws against race-track gambling.

This has been made clear by Rudolph Spreckels, one of a group of men who are sponsoring the efforts of the Pacific Coast Jockey club, which hopes shortly to provide horse-racing on a comprehensive scale at the old Tanforan park.

In making clear the stand of himself and his associates Spreckels says that the people of California "want legalized horse racing but they have disapproved of legalized gambling in connection therewith." He expressed the belief that the proposed races would be as popular and well attended as baseball and football games and other forms of sport.

Alameda School Children Are Made Gleeful by Health Clown

CHO-CHO, nationally famed health clown, and some of Alameda Haight School children he entertained.

Cho-Cho Entertains and Instructs Fifteen Hundred West End Youngsters

ALAMEDA, Feb. 3.—Fifteen hundred Alameda youngsters from the west-end district schools marched solemnly into the auditorium of the Haight school yesterday. Hardly had they been seated than fifteen hundred faces broke into smiles, and then followed shouts of laughter from every child present. The cause of the change was Cho-Cho. He was on the stage, grinning broadly, his red hair, wide flapping pants, and a white, a waist all spotted with red and blue splotches and a wide ruff about the neck.

Cho-Cho is known as the Health Clown and he is making a tour of the United States under the direction of the Child Hygiene Section of the United States Health Service. His particular mission in life is to make people smile and to teach the youngsters health rules and proper living in an entirely new way, and is one which appeals most to the American youngster, through the medium of the story telling clown.

That his efforts were not wasted yesterday was evinced by the waves of laughter that swept the audience and by the keen interest which was shown in his talks. He gave his first one at the Haight school to the west end youngsters, and then at the Porter school to the kiddies from the eastern part of the city.

Efforts are to be made by Miss Zdenka Buben and Miss Buleah H. Spunn, to have Cho-Cho in Alameda again in about a month. His appearance was under the auspices of the Alameda Health Center.

Following the demonstrations Cho-Cho entertained the Health Center staff at luncheon and demonstrated to them that he himself practices what he preaches in regard to eating. He also narrated his experiences in health work and the saw dust ring. In his leisure time Cho-Cho studies trees and plants. He was greatly taken up with the varieties of palms especially which he found in Alameda, and Superintendent of Parks Al G. Benton promised to furnish him with seeds of the palm in front of the city hall. These Cho-Cho plans to plant at his Florida home.

PUPILS TAKE UP POKER; TEACHER LOSES POSITION

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Because he allowed several of his boy students to take part in a poker game at his home, Paul Miller, professor of physics and chemistry in the Newton (N. Y.) High School, has lost his job. Professor Miller denied he had participated in the game and said that when he found the boys playing poker he immediately stopped the game. The board of education voted to reprimand him, but on the threat of Miller's fellow teachers, including six women, the order was changed to dismissal.

The dance will be the first of the 1922 season, but it is intended that a monthly dance will be held hereafter. Pettibone.

Mysteries Promised At Boy Scouts' Show

ALAMEDA, Feb. 3.—Promises that all sorts of mysterious and baffling things will happen are held out by the members of Troop 11, Alameda Boy Scouts, in announcing their show and dance, which will take place in the auditorium of the Lincoln school this evening.

The patrol is made up of the boys who attend the Lincoln school, and the proceeds from their show will be devoted to the purchase of equipment. The troop is commanded by Dr. P. M. Wulfeisen and is sponsored by W. G. Paden, principal of the Lincoln school.

Following demonstrations of magic the boys will stage a number of stunts and skits.

CHIROPRACTOR IS FREED.

SANTA CRUZ, Feb. 3.—G. C. King, a chiropractor charged with practicing contrary to the State Medical Board, was on trial before a jury today, and after the jury was out for about four hours they returned, failing to agree, and stood 11 to 1 for acquittal. There were two women on the jury, one voting for conviction. The charged was preferred by members of the State Medical Board, who had their representative to assist in the prosecution.

Berkeley Divides On Garbage Problem

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—Endorsement by the Ashby Club and opposition by the West Berkeley Improvement Club has been voiced in the proposal for a garbage fill at the end of the municipal wharf.

Charles Hadlen declared that the use of the wharf by garbage trucks would mean discomfort to manufacturers using the pier for shipments.

The Ashby Club went on record for giving garbage collection a fair trial and declared the fill to be the most sanitary and economical way of handling garbage.

If cows gave only cream—

—Libby would can it just as it came from the dairies.

But all cows' milk is largely water.

Libby takes out more than half the moisture by evaporation—and adds nothing. This is done at spotless condenseries in the finest dairy sections of the country.

Soitiscows' milk, double-rich, fresh and absolutely pure that you get in the air-tight Libbycans at your grocer's.

Use it on your table and in all your cooking—as cream, just as it comes from the can—as milk, diluted with an equal amount of water.

When you buy potatoes from your grocer, get Libby's Milk, too. Wonderful for creaming vegetables.

In spotless copper kettles Libby evaporates over half the moisture from cows' milk, making it thick and rich, like cream.

The taste that brings back childhood memories

THE taste of maple! What memories it recalls! Memories of happy days in the sugar grove gathering sap from the maples, when the first hint of warmth in the spring air set it running free.

What glorious breakfasts those "gathering days" foretold! Stacks of "flannel-cakes" in seas of syrup—syrup of wholesome, woodsy sweetness! Or corn meal mush fried brown and served with it. "Topping" for a score of pudding treats.

It's at your grocer's—now

Let Log Cabin Syrup, with its full rich maple flavor bring back all those childhood memories. Let it give you again the taste you've wanted in so many dishes.

Log Cabin is made from the choicest of New England maple combined with the best from Canadian groves—the real sugars of maple in which the flavor is most intense. This is blended with just enough pure sugar of cane—and nothing else—to make Log Cabin Syrup surpassingly sweet and most delicate in maple flavor. It is always the same; is never bitter, never "strong."

In the log-cabin-shaped can

Log Cabin Syrup is clean and pure because of the careful way it is clarified, refined and blended by the Towle process.

Get a can of Log Cabin at your grocer's today—it comes in three convenient sizes. The Log Cabin Products Company, St. Paul, Minn.

ALBANIANS HAVE NEW WAY TO MAKE MINISTERS QUIT

Lose Job or Head, Is Edict Given Officials; They Retain Heads.

TIRANA, Albania, Feb. 2.—Turbulent Albania has a summary way of changing governments. The other day, when the regents got tired of the administration of Pandeli Evangeli, prime minister, they told him to resign or there would be bloodshed. He refused.

He was given 12 hours in which to choose between the loss of his position or the loss of his head. At midnight he went to his hotel to deliberate on the stern ultimatum. An hour later a group of representatives Albanians, among them several members of the government, called upon the premier and told him those in authority would brook no delay in his resignation. The emissaries were accompanied by soldiers with rifles and machine guns. He explained that he did not get out blood would be spilled, innocent people killed and a revolution might ensue. So he quit.

He was succeeded by Hasan Pristina, who is described by Americans in Albania as an adventurer and a born intriguer. Hasan's regime was short-lived, too. His administration was a failure. He suffered the same fate as his predecessor, although the terms of his resignation were not quite so peremptory or unconventional as those of Evangeli. The regents are now casting about for a new chief of state.

There has since been a revolutionary atmosphere in the city and trouble has been momentarily feared. Parliament, however, was guarded by soldiers and machine guns. In the midst of their work among the children of the American Red Cross workers are finding many thrills. They are, however, in no danger, as their welfare and security is the first thought of the Albanian and Italian authorities.

It is generally felt among the foreign colony that there can never be a stable government here so long as regents are in power. It is said that they cannot even be trusted to control the country. The most hopeful friends of the Albanians sometimes despair of their ever developing into an orderly, efficient, self-governing people.

WAR IMPLEMENTS OF FILIPINO GIFTS OF GEN. PERSHING

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 2.—General John J. Pershing has augmented his contribution of Philippine bird skins, presented to the state museum of the University of Nebraska several years ago, by a collection of Philippine war implements, as donated by the general during his various army maneuvers in the islands.

The first shipment of the collection has been received and the major portion, which is stored in Washington, will be forwarded later. Included among these pieces already received and described by the museum custodians as of more value, are:

Three long-shafted and ornate spears, made and used by the Moros of the southern Philippines islands.

A large solid brass helmet made by the Moros of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

A rare and valuable heavy caste helmet of unusual size, weight and design, also likened after the Spanish helmet.

A coat of mail of heavy brass links and plates, in thick cast brass; each plate being inlaid with copper in various designs.

A set of dagger kris, straight and serpentine in shape, broadbladed barbed and used by Moro tribes, beheading swords and similar weapons. Some of the swords are elaborately wrought with heavy handles of carved ivory, trimmed, wound and inlaid with silver.

The blades in some instances are inlaid with metal and etched in intricate designs.

Revenue Men Ask Advance Appointment

John P. McLaughlin, collector of revenue, in a statement to the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, today calls attention to the fact that taxpayers and taxpayers' representatives having business to transact with the income tax unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue at Washington are neglecting to make the necessary advance appointments for themselves before starting east. Due to this lack of foresight, he points out, some of those traveling from the West have been compelled to wait a number of days in the capital before their cases can be considered. He said frequently the conference cannot be held at once for the reason that the papers and information relating to the case must be assembled or the proper official may be otherwise engaged.

Requests for appointments should be sent in advance to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, David H. Blair, Washington, D. C., together with a statement of all facts in connection with the cases and the purposes for which the appointment is desired.

Oakland Boy Students Wield Hammer, Saw To Build Day Nursery for Little Folk

A new day nursery to care for the children of working women rapidly is nearing completion at the Clawson school. The school children of two Oakland schools are taking a big part in making the structure a reality. The pupils of the Technical high school have borne the cost of setting up the building; the boy pupils in the eighth and ninth grades of the Clawson school are laying the foundations and setting up the building. The above photograph shows a group of them at work.

PARIS TAKES ITS PLEASURES WITH SPANISH SAUCE

PARIS, Jan. 16.—This is the Spanish season in Paris, everything Spanish is in vogue.

Theaters are giving Spanish plays, vaudeville dancers are performing to the sound of castanets, orchestras are playing Spanish melodies, crowds are swarming in dance halls to Spanish tunes, art exhibits are favoring Spanish artists, people are reading Spanish novels, and women are affecting Spanish wear.

There seems to be no other reason for the Spanish vogue than that life in Paris goes by fads, and this is the latest and most startling fad Paris has produced since the war.

The Spanish craze has taken the theaters by storm. From the Opera House to the cheapest vaudeville, Spain holds sway. A new one-act opera entitled "Spanish Time" has been given at the Olympia, where where it has been acclaimed as one of the most successful modern productions of recent years. The famous novel of Blasco Ibanez "In the shadow of the Cathedral" has been dramatized and is being played at a crowded house at the Opera Comique.

Spanish numbers figure in almost every variety show and three review houses—the Folies Bergeres, the Alhambra and the Olympia are now featuring Spanish numbers.

Raquel Meller, the famous Spanish beauty who sang at the Coliseum in London last season, is the dominating figure of the program at the program at the Olympia, where crowds flock every night to hear her sing her famous folk songs and watch her graceful, fifteen minute act.

The public is devouring the novels of Blasco Ibanez, which are prominently displayed in the windows of all the book-stores along the boulevards, while "Paris society" is filling through the art galleries before the canvases of the well known Spanish artist Bertrand Masses, an exhibition of whose works was recently held in the rooms of the fashionable Inter-Allied Club.

But the Spanish craze is not alone revolutionizing the activities of Parisians; it is about to deify what "Parisienne" shall wear, and according to an advance hint given the United Press by a well known dress-maker of the rue Royal, bright yellow is to be the popular color for evening wear, with black Spanish lace overdress.

Structure Being Hurried to Care for Children of Mothers Who Work

The boy students in the eighth and ninth grades at the Clawson school these days are adding to their fund of knowledge. They are learning how to wield hammers and the other implements of the carpentering trade.

A new day nursery is being erected near the school. It is scheduled to be completed some time this month. It will care for between twelve and twenty children whose mothers are out at work days.

Last fall the board of education gave the school a six-room concrete building for housing the day nursery and the health center.

The moving of the structure was paid for by the child hygiene committee of the American Association of University Women.

When it came to setting-up the building and preparing the concrete foundations the boys of the eighth and ninth grades got on the job under the direction of George D. Young. The cost of the setting-up materials has been borne by the students of the Technical High school.

The boys are turning out a good job—substantial and trustworthy, and they are having quite a bit of fun doing it. They figure that every pound of a hammer or rasp of a saw is contributing to the happiness of some youngster.

HOUSE ACCEPTS AMENDMENTS ON REFUNDING BILL

Debts Measure Is Sent to the President After Vote, of 299 to 96.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Senate amendments to the allied debt refunding bill were accepted today by the house. The measure now goes to the president, who is expected to appoint soon the commission which is to open negotiations with the debtor nations.

Administration objections to the senate requirements that the refunded obligations mature not later than June 15, 1947, and that the minimum interest rate be 4 1/2 percent were withdrawn after White House conferences between the president and Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee and Secretary Mellon of the treasury department.

Neither the administration nor Republican leaders of the house favored the senate changes, but it was explained that they had decided to accept them because they would be further delay in final enactment of legislation if the bill were sent to conference.

WOMEN THREATEN BOYCOTT ON MILK

ALAMEDA, Feb. 3.—The milk dealers must bring the price of their product down to ten cents a quart over the counter or the Alameda housewives will declare a boycott upon them. This was decided upon at the meeting of the organization in Knights of Pythias hall yesterday afternoon. Notification of the women's action will be sent to the milk dealers at once.

"There is no justification in the price of twelve cents which they are charging over the counter," said Mrs. Harry O. Tenney, acting head of the League. "There is an abundance of milk with no prospect of a shortage in feed. It is simply a move to make the consumer pay. As regards the housewives, there are 1500 of us and we have all pledged ourselves to boycott the dealers until the price comes down."

The Milk Dealers Association has announced there is no prospect of a reduction from the 12-cent price.

BIG LEAGUE BALL CLUBS ARE SIGNING UNTRIED YOUNGSTERS

JOHNNY BURNS AND DYNAMITE GEORGE ARE SIGNED TO BOX THE MAIN EVENT NEXT WEEK

MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS ARE MAKING GRABS AT ALL PROMISING TALENT

Some Clubs Sign Kids and Farm Them to the Minor Leagues Without Even a Trial.

By EDDIE MURPHY.
Minor league ball clubs are going to find it mighty tough in the next couple of seasons in signing players out of the minors if the big league scouts continue to grab up the youngsters as they have this winter. All over the country the major league clubs have scouts scattered, and they are able to offer the young fellows better contracts than the minors, so naturally they are meeting with more success. Probably the majors are looking forward to the draft situation, and are going to get all the young fellows they can under their wings. The new rule which prohibits a major league club from taking more than forty ball-players into training camp may serve to keep some of the clubs from grabbing too many young fellows, but nevertheless most of the majors are going out getting the kids and then farming them to smaller clubs.

The St. Louis Cardinals started that a couple of seasons ago, so that is one club which cannot be figured as getting prepared to war on the minors. But it is hinted that signing all the young players possible, is one way in which the majors have discovered to war on the minors, and it is no surprise at all to see so many kids being signed to major contracts. The Chicago Cubs, no doubt, have too many youngsters signed to know what to do with them, for from the big chiefs of that club the word has been sent out to all their scouts to release all bushers signed up in California. Their excuse is given that only forty players can be taken into training camp. So several fellows who were signed to Chicago Cub contracts during the present winter league are going to be out of luck unless they can get on with some other club. Chet Bertolacci, of the Oakland Athletics, and Bill Steingrade are a couple of them.

Cal. Ewing Had the Right Idea About the Bushers.

In giving his view of the draft situation a few weeks ago, Cal. Ewing, president of the Oakland Club and the only Coast League director to vote in favor of the draft, called attention to the fact that the major leagues were threatening to make a clean-up in the bushes all over the country. His suggestion was that should the minor leagues go in favor of the draft, the majors should be forced to live to a rule that would keep them from grabbing any players out of the bushes without the sanction of the minor league club that might be in the district that made them. Whether he was right or not, Ewing's idea was grabbed from. In other words the St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds or other National League clubs could not take a player out of the TRIBUNE-Midwinter League without the sanction of the Oaks.
Probably Ewing, who has always been classed as the shrewdest man in the minor leagues, scented what the major league clubs intended to do in the bushes if the minor leagues went in favor of the draft. Whether he did or not, his suggestion to keep 25 majors out of the local bushes did not look like a bad idea after all. If the majors took the kids with the idea of giving them a thorough trial before turning them loose, it would not be so bad, but in the last week a couple of managers who are to lead teams in minor league this summer have mentioned that they are to get players from major league clubs, and they are players who have been signed from the local Midwinter League this year. One of the managers is Bill Rodgers of the Calgary. He is just a case of a few local boys signing big league contracts with the thought they are going to get a thorough trial, but instead they were just signed to be placed in a class B and D league as an experiment.

Minor Leagues Wrong on Draft Claims Senator

Says by Opposing Draft They Are Halting Progress of Game.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Minor league organizations which are refusing to recognize the "selective system" for advancing their players to the major leagues as advocated by two organizations are "violating ethics of Americanism and holding back the progress of the game," George Wharton Pepper, framer of the major and minor league agreements and rules, declared here today. Expressing his views on a question which is expected to be prominently discussed at the meeting here in a few days between Judge Landis, baseball commissioner, and the American League club owners, Senator Pepper said that he was "convinced there is no better arrangement by which a player can advance from one league to another and finally reach the majors."
"It appears to me that those leagues which are opposing the selective system, are looking more to their individual interests than they are to the progression of the game," he said.
"The selective system serves a threefold purpose. It not only takes care of the player and club owner, but it likewise serves the public. The player is given his chance to go up, the club owner is compensated and his graduation from one league to another, it maintains the high standard and efficiency of play."
Senator Pepper said he had been "astounded" to find by a compilation of the news that at the time covering the short period of years that the major leagues had paid for the purchase of players from minor leagues more than $16,000,000.

Charley Deal May Not Join Angels

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Considerable consternation prevails in the ranks of local baseball fans over the apparently hazy future of Charley Deal, former stellar infielder of the Chicago Cubs who was turned over to the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league recently with five other Cub players. Deal announced yesterday, according to local sport writers, that he would leave Saturday for Chicago, where he would go into business unless he received what he considered to be a "fair contract." Deal, who led the third basemen of both American and National league clubs in fielding last season and hit the ball at a 290 clip, is quoted as having said that he didn't care where he played ball, so long as the remuneration was satisfactory to him. Wade Killefer, manager of the Angels, has been declared "last night Deal" would be seen in a Los Angeles uniform when the 1922 season opens.

Vernon Club Signs Pair of Young High School Track Stars

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Two former Southern California high school athletic stars will be members of the Vernon Club of the Pacific Coast League when the Tigers go into training next spring. The place Tuesday night. The league will go under the name of the Oakland Business Men's League, and the prominent local establishments will make up the personnel. The entry list, as announced by Manager Coffman, includes the following: Brooks Tailors, Philadelphia Shoe Juniors, Breunert Furniture, Eskimo, Badgers, Shoemart, Auditorium and Union Ice. Play in the league will start next Tuesday.

Frank McNair Wins Trapshooting Honors

HOUSTON, Tex., Feb. 3.—The Sunny South handicap shoot was concluded yesterday with Frank McNair of Houston, winning the trophy by breaking 89 out of a possible 100 target. McNair's shooting was the feature of the day. He turned in a total score of 137 for 200 targets. This shooting from 22 yards is said to be a record by those who attended the shoot. E. P. Woodward of Houston won the Hazzard Club trophy in a special doubles match staged. He was tied in the tournament by Frank Hughes of Mobile, S. D., but in the shoot-off won 47 to 45.

Age vs. Youth To Be Feature In These Bouts

Joe Benjamin and Johnny Dundee Meet Tonight in New York.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent.
NEW YORK Feb. 3.—Youth, which always fighting that theoretical battle to be served, will have four chances to get its dues in the sport arena in the next two weeks. Youth against age and experience against inexperience will be the most important factors when three championship titles are put in the balance. Joe Benjamin, a young California lightweight, who has been coming forward rapidly, starts the demonstration tonight in Madison Square Garden when he faces the smart Britton and Dunn meet in the first round. Sentiment of fight fans is well expressed in "Benjamin is a good boy, but Dundee knows too much for him." Taking for granted that it is the "up and up," Monday's contest for the wrestling championship by Stanislaus Zyzasko and Earl Cadock is the best test of all.

Zyzasko is a marvel as an old man. He doesn't know how many years he has seen pass by, but he is a youth in action and endurance. Cadock is young and in his prime, one of the most finished grapplers of all time. Benny Leonard, a veteran beyond years in experience, gives Rocky Kansas, the sturdy little "Buffalo" lightweight, a chance for the title in the Garden on February 10. Because he is regarded as knowing too much for the challenger, the champion will be a prohibitive favorite when they enter the ring.

Another excellent experiment with the old theory will come when Jack Britton and Dave Shade meet in the Garden on February 17 for the welterweight championship.

Southern Cal. A. A. U. Meet Set for Feb. 18

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Eighteen events will be run out in the annual Southern California A. A. U. relay championships, to be staged at Redlands on February 18. The meet was announced here today. To date 25 high schools in the southern part of the state have signed entries to participate in the high school and college events, while many other prep institutions will be represented in the open events.

Finton is little more than a middleweight and said something about being handicapped boxing a big heavy like Gibbons.

"He must have weighed 160 pounds," said Curly after the battle.

"Yep," said Simpson, "ten or thirty-five, maybe forty."

Johnny Burns and Dynamite George have been rematched and another hectic session is assured.

Good Card Is Signed Up for Next Wednesday

HERE is a list of the young men who will entertain the box-fighting fans at the auditorium next Wednesday evening:
Johnny Burns vs. Dynamite George "Curley" Finton vs. "Goat" Lavin
Joe Herrera vs. Teddy O'Hara
Bob Collins vs. Al Hoag
Jimmy Kelsey vs. Sammy Campagno
Pete Francis vs. Willie Curry
Batting Hoppe vs. Joe Cardinet

"Curly" Finton, the sensational light heavyweight who defeated George Gibbons Wednesday night, will be seen in action again next week when he meets "Goat" Lavin at the Auditorium. Finton is easily one of the real cards as the stuff he pulled on Gibbons was entirely new. When Tommy Simpson was in New York a year ago he saw Finton boxing in an amateur tournament at Madison Square Garden. Finton represented the navy and carried off the championship. He received a diamond belt from Premier Tex Rickard and yesterday he sent east for the trophy which will be placed on exhibition in Benton and Fager's when it arrives.

Night after the Gibbons-Finton bout Wednesday a customer came running down the aisle and meeting Promoter Simpson he demanded to know what was going on. "What did you advertise this performance as going to be?" asked the fan. "A boxing show," replied Simpson. "When you give me a rough back," yelled the fan, "this is a circus."

Tommy told Finton about the incident after the fight and the ex-sailor apologized. "I'm sorry my style didn't satisfy the people," he said, "next time I'll box differently."

"If you do," said Simpson, "I'll shoot you."

Finton is little more than a middleweight and said something about being handicapped boxing a big heavy like Gibbons.

"He must have weighed 160 pounds," said Curly after the battle.

"Yep," said Simpson, "ten or thirty-five, maybe forty."

Johnny Burns and Dynamite George have been rematched and another hectic session is assured.

Wills Says J. Kearns Promised Him Match

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—After allowing the talk to come from other sources Paddy Mullins, manager of Harry Wills, broke his silence today and said he would put the Denyse-Wills match up "fat" to Kearns. "Kearns promised me a fight some time ago," said Mullins. "I'll ask him if he still means it." Mullins said. Tex Rickard said today he would not put in a big fight, but as he did not regard it as a good proposition at this time.

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul boxer, scored a technical knockout over Pat McCarthy of Roxbury, in the fourth round of their ten-round match. The bout was held at the Boston Athletic Association gymnasium of McCarthy. The men are light heavyweights.

PROTEST VOICED AGAINST CHOICE FOR MUSEUM SITE

Uptown Association Opposes
Purchase of Kendall
Property.

A protest voiced by the Uptown Association against the purchase of the Kendall property today was voiced in the city council today. The Kendall property, at the intersection of the city and the city, is to be used for the museum site.

Representatives of a corporation which built the Auto Palace Garage at 1551 Alice street protested against the purchase of the Kendall property. The owners of the big garage said they built this place expecting that apartment houses would not be allowed to build their own garages. They demanded that their investment be protected. The matter comes up Monday.

A. H. Dexter, who built a machine shop at 835 Fifty-fifth street, protested that there is no ordinance prohibiting his shop, and it is not in a residence district. His reply was filed.

"How Mrs. Atherton Gets Her Color" is the subject of an article by Henry Meade Bland in next Sunday's TRIBUNE Magazine. Gertrude Atherton stands foremost among colorful writers in America and she tells the secret to Mr. Bland. All writers and aspirants will want to read what she tells.

Savant Shocked to See Men Jazz Fans Dancing Together

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—"Whether are we drifting?" asks Professor C. P. Chapman at the university, for in the matter of the craze for jazz and dancing the professor thinks that the students are going to extremes.

"The other evening on my way home from the campus," says the professor, "I was startled to see through the front windows of a voracity house a number of the girls dancing with each other. But now, imagine my surprise upon viewing similar actions in fraternity houses."

Professor Chapman states that he has seen such remarkable occurrences, and others at the university affirm his statement. Members of many of the fraternities have purchased phonographs for entertainment, or have organized bands, or have organized orchestras within their organizations, and now spend their evenings dancing together.

Child's Asailant Hunted by Police

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—Berkeley police are searching today for a man in an automobile, about 25 years old, who late yesterday afternoon assaulted an eight-year-old girl whom he had asked to direct him to John Hunkel park.

Children of the neighborhood furnished a good description of both the girl's attacker and the car. The man is about 5 feet, 7 inches tall, weighs 150 pounds, has dark brown hair, brown eyes and brown mustache. He wore a gray knee-length overcoat, a gray soft hat, medium gray suit and tan oxfords. His automobile is described as a small car several years old with a dark red body and yellow wheels.

RESIDENTS CAN'T SLEEP; CITY SUES UNION ICE PLANT

Injunction Asked and Company Officials Cited; Steady Noise, Is Charge.

The city of Oakland today asked the superior court for an injunction restraining the Union Ice company from operating its plant at Twenty-second and Filbert streets in such a manner as to disturb the sleep of residents in that vicinity.

An order citing officials of the ice company into court next Friday to show cause why the injunction should not be granted was immediately issued to Assistant City Attorney John Jewett Earle by Superior Judge Koford.

Earle recites that the internal combustion engines at the ice plant, running twenty-four hours a day, have caused rapid, violent and interrupted atmospheric vibrations, and loud, offensive and continued noises. The result has been, he says, that residences throughout the entire block and portions of adjacent blocks have been violently and continuously shaken and rucked, and their occupants have been unable to sleep.

A day in Oakland's municipal court brings out some fearful and comical sides of life. A TRIBUTE staff spent a day recently among the unfortunate jobless men who flock to the city's relief station. He told about it in next Sunday's Magazine.

Samuel F. B. Morse, inventor of the telegraph, entered Yale at 18 years of age.

BUILDING PERMIT ISSUED FOR NEW OAKLAND ARMORY

$30,000 Home for Artillery Batteries Planned At Twenty-third and Grove.

The first move toward actual construction of a permanent armory for Oakland's artillery batteries was made today with the application for a building permit.

The armory will be on Twenty-third near Grove. It will be a two-story brick and tile structure, to be built on land owned by C. S. Booth. The contractor will be S. A. Warner and the building will cost $30,000.

For some time, since the batteries were run all over Oakland while seeking a home, the officers and men have been busily trying to finance a permanent building.

At present the horses and guns for the field batteries are in a mud field at Leona Heights, the equipment is at Government Island and the drills and assemblies are held at Odd Fellows' hall.

Aged Painter Dies; Gas Asphyxiation

J. D. Palmer, 77, a painter, living at 2632 Twenty-sixth avenue, is dead as a result of being accidentally overcome by gas. He died at Fabiola hospital late yesterday, following a week of suffering. An autopsy held at the coroner's office last night showed that the aged man's heart failed to withstand the shock. He was found a week ago in his bed with the gas jet turned on. The wind had blown out the flame, allowing the gas to escape.

Cadets Select Four Prettiest Girls at Tech High as Sponsors

R. O. T. C. Battalion Members Honor Pulchritudinous Students at Ceremony

Having been adjudged the four prettiest girls in Technical High school by the R. O. T. C., Rosalie Hager, Cleo Hall, Adrian Adams and Burdette Spencer now enjoy the distinction of sponsoring the unit in all military functions in which it participates.

Miss Hager was the first to be honored by the students, soldiers, having been chosen at a popular military election in the fall semester of last year. Their desire for feminine inspiration not satisfied by one sponsor, the subdivisions of the battalion, each recently chose a sponsor, bringing the total to four.

Miss Hager, the sponsor of the whole battalion, was presented with a handsome silver-mounted and fittingly engraved ebony swag stick, the gift of the officers, at an impressive ceremony held a short time ago. Harold West, then major of the battalion, tendered the stick and expressed the desire that Miss Hager might continue to serve as an inspiration.

The sponsors are at present doing their best to develop a spirit of appreciation among the girls of the student body for the boy in uniform. It became the custom, during the war, for the larger military units to select sponsors who would be commissioned as honorary officers. Mary Pickford and other well-known women were thus honored. It was decided to continue the custom when the R. O. T. C. was established. While most of the units about the bay have sponsors, it has been conceded by the boys of Tech that theirs surpass all the others by far.
